2	CROSS-EXAMINATION	BY MR.	RANKING:
3	1.	Q.	You are Ms	s. Jessica Duncan?
4		Α.	Yes.
5	2.	Q.	And I unde	erstand that you have been
6	sworn to	tell th	e truth?
7		Α.	I have.
8	3.	Q.	And you ar	re here to be
9	cross-exa	amined o	n an affid	lavit that you swore on the
10	22nd of A	April, 2	010?
11		Α.	Yes.
12	4.	Q.	Before swe	earing this affidavit, did
13	you speal	k to Mr.	McKenzie	about it?
14		Α.	No.
15	5.	MR. RAN	KING:	What I would like to do
16		is, for	the purpo	oses of the
17		cross-e	xamination	n, if we can mark the
18		two-vol	ume affida	avit of Ms. Duncan as
19		Exhibit	number 1.
20		MR. EPS	TEIN:	That is fine.
21	6.	MR. RAN	KING:	Thank you.

23	EXHIBIT NO.	1:	Affidavit	of Documents of
24			Ms. Duncan	n, two volumes

1	BY MR. RA	ANKING:
2	7.	Q.	Now, I understand, Ms. Duncan, that
3		you are a partı	ner at the law firm of Crawford McLean
4		Anderson & Dunc	can LLP?
5		А.	Yes.
6	8.	Q.	And I take it that that is the
7		successor law :	firm to Crawford McKenzie McLean
8		Anderson & Dunc	can LLP?
9		Α.	Yes.
10	9.	Q.	And I take it you are also a partner
11		at the predeces	ssor firm of Crawford McKenzie?
12		Α.	Yes.
13	10.	Q.	So, for the purposes of my
14		questions, when	n I am referring to the successor firm
15		of Crawford Mc	Lean, I will refer to it as Crawford
16		McLean, and for	the predecessor firm, I will simply
17		say Crawford Mo	cKenzie.
18		А.	Thank you.
19	11.	Q.	All right. And aside from those two
20		firms, did you	ever practice law with Mr. McKenzie
21		in another law	firm?
22		Α.	No.
23	12.	Q.	And I take it that you had no other
24		business relat:	ionship with Mr. McKenzie?

25

A. No...sorry, I am just thinking back.

1		When you	say "a	ny other law firms", do you mean the
2		same law	firm w	ith different names over the years?
3	13.		Q.	Yes.
4			Α.	Okay. In that case, I was wrong.
5		The law	firm ha	s gone through a number of name
6		changes.
7	14.		Q.	All right. Why don't we do it this
8		way to m	ake it	easier for you? When did you
9		graduate	from 1	aw school?
10			Α.	1995I'm sorry, 1993.
11	15.		Q.	And after your graduation, where did
12		you arti	cle?
13			Α.	Russell Christie.
14	16.		Q.	Okay. And following your articles
15		at Russe	ll Chri	stie, what law firm did you join?
16			Α.	I practised at Russell Christie
17		until th	e year	2000.
18	17.		Q.	And in 2000, what firm did you join?
19			Α.	Crawford McKenzie McLean & Wilford.
20	18.		Q.	All right. Were you called in 1995?
21			Α.	Yes.
22	19.		Q.	So, just summarizing, you practised
23		for five	years	at another firm, and then you joined
24		Mr. McKe	nzie's	firm in 2000?
0.5			_

A. Yes.

1	20.	Q. And then you remained with that firm
2		as the name may have changed or gone through various
3		iterations through until today's date?
4		A. That is correct.
5	21.	Q. Thank you. Now, at what time did
6		you become a partner in the Crawford McKenzie or
7		Crawford McLean firm?
8		A. January of 2002.
9	22.	Q. And did you sign a partnership
10		agreement then?
11		A. Yes.
12	23.	Q. And can you tell me who the partners
13		were in January of 2002?
14		A. I am pausing because Mr. Crawford, I
15		think, was still a partner then, as opposed to a
16		retired senior counselor, no, he may have been
17		retired by then. Partners I can be certain of:
18		Bill McKenzie, William G. McLean or Bill McLean,
19		Karen Wilford, Tim Anderson, and myself.
20	24.	Q. All right. I don't need to go
21		through all the iterations of the partners from 2002
22		to 2007, but can you tell me who the partners were
23		as of February 2007 and through until today's date?
24		A. February of 2007, it was Bill
25		McKenzie, Bill McLean, Tim Anderson, and myself.

1	25.	Q. And they remained partners through
2		until December 31, 2009?
3		A. Yes.
4	26.	Q. And it was at that point, having now
5		read Mr. McKenzie's affidavit, that he withdrew from
6		the partnership?
7		A. Officially, yes.
8	27.	Q. All right. I am going to come back
9		to that because there are a few questions on his
10		affidavit. But as of December 31, Mr. McKenzie
11		withdrew, and I take it then that the current
12		partners of Crawford McLean are now yourself, Bill
13		Anderson, and Bill McLean?
14		A. Bill McLean and Tim Anderson.
15	28.	Q. Sorry. Thank you. Those are the
16		three partners?
17		A. Yes.
18	29.	MR. RANKING: Okay. Thank you. Just
19		off the record.
20
21		DISCUSSION OFF THE RECORD
22
23	BY MR. RA	ANKING:
24	30.	Q. If I could ask you to just turn
25		updo you have Mr. McKenzie's affidavit?

1		MR. EPSTEIN: Which affidavit are
2		youthe one that he recently swore?
3	31.	MR. RANKING: This is the affidavit that
4		was sworn on April 23rd.
5		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.
7	BY MR. RA	ANKING:
8	32.	Q. I just want to make sure that you
9		and he agree on some of the points in his affidavit.
10		Do you have that before you, Ms. Duncan?
11		A. Well, I am going to look at my
12		counsel's copy because I just have an unsworn
13		e-mailed copy.
14	33.	Q. I am just going to ask you to look
15		at the first few paragraphs. Paragraph 4, the
16		statement is made that:
17		"Mr. McKenzie advised his partners on
18		February 26th, 2007 that he would be
19		winding down his practice and withdrawing
20		from the firm completely in 2009"
21		Is that accurate?
22		A. That is not my recollection.
23	34.	Q. All right. Can you tell me your
24		recollection?
25		A. My recollection is that that was his

1		birthday in 2007. He made some comment that he did
2		not wish to remain a partner over the age of 70. He
3		wished to retire at age 65. He did indicate that on
4		his 60th birthday, which would have been in February
5		of 2009, that he intended to start winding down his
6		practice.
7	35.	Q. And when did he make this statement,
3		in February of '07?
9		A. There were various times he made
10		that statement, and the statement changed over time.
11		But it didthe first time that I can recall
12		hearing it was around his birthday in 2007.
13	36.	Q. And did he, in fact, provide any
14		written letter or memorandum to the firm as of
15		February 26th, 2007?
16		A. No, he did not.
17	37.	Q. So, as far as you are concerned, you
18		don't agree with paragraph 4 of Mr. McKenzie's
19		affidavit?
20		A. Well, I can say it is not my
21		recollection, but I can't speak to Mr. McKenzie's
22		recollection.
23	38.
	J () •
24		you have an unsworn e-mailed copy

A. Yes.

1	39.	Qof the affidavit? And how did
2		that come into your possession? What version of the
3		affidavit is that that you were looking at?
4		A. I am pretty sure it's the swornit
5		is the one that was sworn. I was under the
6		impression it was served unsworn for time reasons.
7	40.	Q. I see. So that was provided to you
8		by your counsel?
9		A. Yes.
10	41.	Q. All right. Thank you. Now, just
11		asking you to go back to Mr. McKenzie's affidavit.
12		Paragraph 3 indicates that:
13		"[He] withdrew from the firm and had no
14		relationship with it since December 31,
15		2009"
16		If I can take each of those statements separately,
17		do you agree with Mr. McKenzie that he withdrew from
18		the firm as of December 31, 2009?
19		A. Yes.
20	42.	Q. And has he had no relationship with
21		the firm since that date?
22		A. No, he has not.
23	43.	Q. So you agree with that?
24		A. Yes.
25	44.	Q. All right. And if I could also ask

1	you to turn to paragraph 5. Mr. McKenzie states in
2	the second sentence that:
3	"[He] sold his half interest in the
4	building in July of 2008"
5	But he goes on to say:
6	"I ceased to be a partner in the firm at
7	the beginning of 2009"
8	Now, I am having difficulty reconciling the third
9	paragraph where he indicates that he withdrew from
10	the firm as of December 31, 2009, and yet, in
11	paragraph 5, he states that he ceased to be a
12	partner at the beginning of 2009. Can you assist
13	me, as a partner of the firm, and reconcile those
14	two paragraphs?
15	A. My remaining partners and I have had
16	difficulty with those paragraphs as well. There was
17	definitely a dispute in August of 2008, at which
18	point Mr. McKenzie had been managing partner up to
19	that point. He continued as managing partner until
20	mid to late September of 2008, at which point there
21	was a very serious breakdown of the partnership
22	relationship.
23	He then began dictating terms on which he
24	would be continuing to deal with the firm. There was never any agreement signed. However, in October

1		2008, Mr. McKenzie began simply contributing a
2		preset amount of funds to the firm, and he otherwise
3		carried on, essentially, an independent practice.
4	45.	Q. All right. If I could just go back
5		for a moment. I take it that you said that there
6		was a major dispute in August of 2008, but then
7		erupted in September of 2008?
8		A. There had been difficulties over the
9		summer of 2008. In August of 2008, I believe there
10		was an e-mail in which Mr. McKenzie purported to
11		withdraw, but he continued to act as managing
12		partner after the date of that e-mail.
13	46.	Q. And what was it that prompted Mr.
14		McKenzie, to your knowledge, to send that e-mail and
15		to withdraw from the partnership in 2008?
16		A. He didn't feel the other three
17		partners were bringing in enough money.
18	47.	Q. And when you said that matters came
19		to a head in September of 2008, what were you
20		referring to?
21		A. Although he had indicated that he
22		wanted to turn over management to the other
23		partners, we discovered that he had been, in fact,
24		continuing to operate all the accounts and carry on
25		transactions as if he were managing. And there was

1		a lot of disagreement around those issues.
2	48.	Q. And did any of the issues that gave
3		rise to the concerns expressed by you and the other
4		partners, excluding Mr. McKenzie, have anything to
5		do with the matters in issue in this action, or the
6		subject matter in this action?
7		A. No.
8	49.	Q. So, to use the vernacular, this was
9		a typical good law firm partnership dispute over
10		profits, allocation and the amount of work that
11		people were doing to bring in money and allocate it?
12		A. Yes.
13	50.	Q. Okay. And as of September of '08,
14		it comes to a head, and you said that Mr. McKenzie
15		then began contributing preset amounts of money to
16		the firm as of October '08. How was this dispute
17		resolved?
18		A. I would have difficulty answering
19		that question. I believe the dispute is still
20		ongoing.
21	51.	Q. And you have indicated that you and
22		your partners have difficulty with the paragraphs

that I took you to, namely reconciling paragraphs 3 and 5 of the McKenzie affidavit. According to you and your partners, when do you say that Mr. McKenzie

1		withdrew from the Crawford McKenzie partnership?
2		A. He made the statement a number of
3		times. But, at the same time that he would make a
4		statement that he was no longer a partner, we would
5		get an e-mail another time indicating that he was
6		still a partner. It just depended on what the
7		subject was at the time. So, it wasn't until he
8		delivered a formalhe delivered a formal written
9		withdrawal from the partnership in October of 2009,
10		and that was to be effective by the end of the year.
11	52.	Q. And was that document that was sent
12		to the partners in October '09 accepted by the
13		partners?
14		A. Yes.
15	53.	Q. Will you produce a copy of that
16		document?
17		MR. EPSTEIN: I will take that under
18		advisement.	U/A
19	54.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
20
21	BY MR. R	ANKING:
22	55.	Q. So I take it that one of the matters
23		with which you and your partners take issue is the
24		statement by Mr. McKenzie in paragraph 5 of his
25		affidavit that he ceased to be a partner at the

1		beginning of 2009?
2		A. Well, legally, as far as outside
3		any outside people were involved, he did not.
4		Internally, he certainly was not acting as a partner
5		except when he was upset about something.
6	56.	Q. Have you ever come to a settlement
7		agreement with Mr. McKenzie? When I say "you", I
8		mean you and your partners.
9		A. No.
10	57.	Q. And have you ever distributed assets
11		to him with respect to the dissolution of the
12		partnership as it existed up to and including
13		December 2009?
14		A. That may be an issue that is under
15		dispute. I can't say one way or the other.
16	58.	Q. And when you indicated that he began
17		contributing a preset amount in October of 2008, was
18		that different from the practice that had been
19		followed by Mr. McKenzie and the other partners up
20		to October 2008?
21		A. Yes.
22	59.	Q. And can you tell me what the
23		practice was prior to October 2008, and how it
24		changed?
25		A. Prior to October of 2008, we

1		operated as a partnership. Everybody pooled their
2		billings. We paid our overhead, we paid our
3		expenses, and the profits were then shared on a
4		proportional basis.
5	60.	Q. And prior to October of 2008, what
6		was Mr. McKenzie's share of the partnership? In
7		other words, I think some of us at the table refer
8		to it as points in our firms, but
9		A. We are too small for that, sorry.
10	61.	Q. Sometimes the people at larger firms
11		are quite jealous of that. But leaving that aside,
12		how do you characterize Mr. McKenzie's interest in
13		the firm relative to those of the other partners?
14		A. Prior to August of 2008?
15	62.	Q. Yes.
16	63.	MR. SILVER: August or October?
17		THE DEPONENT: Well, August of 2008 was
18		when the dispute started. Mr. McKenzie,
19		his nickname was the 500-pound gorilla
20		because he could sit wherever he wanted to
21		sit. He made probably three times the
22		billings of the rest of us put together,
23		twice or three times the billings of the
24		rest of us put together.

1	BY MR. R	ANKING:
2	64.	Q. And taking it back to an equally
3		objective standard, but not knowing what the
4		billings of the firm were, what was hiswhen you
5		come to the percentage of profit that he would
6		withdraw from the firm on an annual basis, what was
7		his division of profit?
8		A. There was a formula. I believe it
9		was up to 500,000 was 40 percent, up to between
10		500,000 and 600,000 was 50 percent, and over 600,000
11		was supposed to be 60 percent.
12	65.	Q. And I take it that the dispute
13		erupted as of August of '08? There was then some
14		area over the period of August, September, October
15		where matters were in flux, presumably?
16		A. Yes.
17	66.	Q. And in October of 2008, at that
18		point in time, Mr. McKenzie then began contributing
19		a specific amount?
20		A. Yes.
21	67.	Q. And how was the amount calculated
22		that he would contribute to the firm?
23		A. There was some discussion about the
24		amount for the last three months of 2009.
25	68.	Q. 2008?

to the payment of expenses for the overhead of the firm? A. Yes. 70. Q. And he then selected that amount and dictated to the firm what that would be, I take it? A. Yes. 71. Q. And with respect to the other side of the equation, the amount that he was taking out, did that change, if at all, after the dispute in August of '08, leading up to October of '08? A. I really don't know. It is one of the problems. Mr. McKenzie set up his own general account. He and his assistant were handling all of his billings. 72. Q. I see. And when you say he set up general account, was that in the name of the firm, or his own name? A. That was in his own name. 73. Q. So was he actually directing client	1		A. Sorry, 2008. 1 Α. Yes. 2 77. Ο. And I take it that one of the matters which is in dispute is a claim by you and 3 your partners for an accounting from Mr. McKenzie as to the amounts that were billed, whether or not 5 those amounts were appropriately billed, and whether or not he, in fact, was applying the rigors of the 7 partnership agreement that existed, certainly up to 8 his withdrawal from the partnership; is that fair? 9 10 Α. Yes. 11 78. And as I take it, I think it is fair 12 to say that matters have not yet been resolved 13 between you and your partners and Mr. McKenzie? 14 MR. EPSTEIN: She indicated that. 15 BY MR. There were various letters, memos 24 Α.

1	80.	Q. Were you satisfied with the amount
2		that he was paying for his contribution towards the
3		overhead?
4		A. No, we weren't.
5	81.	Q. And, again, looking at the
6		pre-October of '08 and the post-October of '08, what
7		was he contributing to the firm, and how did that
8		change as of October of '08?
9		MR. EPSTEIN: I understand why you are
10		asking questions because they do arise out
11		of Mr. McKenzie's affidavit, but I don't
12		know that all the details of precisely how
13		much he is paying are relevant to the
14		issues that we are here to talk about
15		today, which is really cross-examination of
16		Ms. Duncan's affidavit.
17		As I said, I have given you
18		considerable leeway to ask about it because
19		I do understand the issue that has been
20		raised with regard to partnership in Mr.
21		McKenzie's affidavit, which is, in some
22		respects, in conflict with Ms. Duncan's
23		affidavit. So I think his role and what
24		his relationship was with the firm are
25		relevant questions. But when you start

1		talking about exact amounts that he paid or
2		didn't pay, I am not sure that that is
3		relevant.	/R
5	BY MR. R	ANKING:
6	82.	Q. We are getting into the accounts
7		very soon, but with respect to the amounts that were
8		billed for the various files to which you make
9		reference in paragraph 3 of your affidavit, all the
10		funds were received by the firm; is that correct?
11		A. I believe so, yes.
12	83.	Q. And were the funds that were
13		received with respect to the subject matter, what I
14		have called the subject matter of the Nelson
15		Barbados litigation, were they distributed to Mr.
16		McKenzie in accordance with the partnership
17		agreement?
18		A. Insofar as possible.
19	84.	Q. What do you mean by that?
20		A. Well, one of the issues was
21		overhead. Mr. McKenzie felt that he should have
22		received the full percentage as set out in the
23		partnership agreement. Overhead was not permitting
24		that, and that was a source of disagreement.

25 85. Q. And do I take your answer to mean

1		that Mr. McKenzie thought that no overhead should be
2		deducted from the billings that were coming in from
3		Mr. Allard or Peterco?
4		A. I don't think that was his position.
5	86.	Q. I may well have misunderstood your
6		answer, Ms. Duncan.
7		A. I think his position was that the
8		other lawyers should have been contributing more to
9		overhead so that he could take his full percentage
10		out.
11	87.	Q. I see. Again, I would like to come
12		back to this, but one of the issues that we are
13		concerned to understand is, with respect to the
14		billings from the Crawford McKenzie firm relative to
15		the subject matter of the Nelson Barbados file, we
16		understand that it was billed by the firm, correct?
17		A. Yes.
18	88.	Q. It was collected by the firm?
19		A. Yes.
20	89.	Q. And it then became an issue between
21		Mr. McKenzie and the firm as to how those
22		collections were distributed; is that fair?
23		A. The issue was the amount of funds
24		available to pay overhead. So it wasn't tied to one file. That is why I am having difficulty answering

1		your question.
2	90.	Q. All right. At the end of the day,
3		Mr. McKenzie thought he should be getting paid more
4		because he though the other partners were
5		undercontributing to overhead?
6		A. Yes.
7	91.	Q. Okay. But certainly, we are in
8		agreement that, throughout the entire proceeding,
9		for any of the various files that formed the subject
10		matter of Nelson Barbados, they were billed by the
11		firm, and the firm collected those funds, correct?
12		A. Yes.
13	92.	Q. All right. Thank you. Now, I just
14		want to put a couple of documents to you so that I
15		understand, because the actual documents on the
16		public record may be something different. I am
17		going to pass across to you a business names report,
18		and this business names report is from the Ministry
19		of Government Services.
20		And you will see it is a business name for
21		Crawford McKenzie McLean Anderson & Duncan, and it
22		indicates that the activity being carried out is a

12	103.		Q.	I take it that this document was
13		filed on	behalf	of your current partnership, Ms.
14		Duncan?
15			A.	I believe so.
16	104.		Q.	And, although the dates do not
17		coincide	identi	cally, it certainly would seem to
18		reflect 1	Mr. McKe	enzie's withdrawal from the firm as
19		of Decemb	per of 2	2009, and this firm continuing as a
20		successo	r firm;	is that correct?
21			A.	Yes.
22	105.		Q.	And was there any change in terms of
23		the addre	ess of p	practice? I take it they are
24		continui	ng to ca	arry on practice from 40 Coldwater
25		Street?

1		A. Yes.
2	106.	Q. And as I understand your earlier
3		evidence, the issue with respect to taking accounts
4		with Mr. McKenzie remains outstanding?
5		A. Yes.
6	107.	Q. And that is with respect to both
7		assets of the firm, and what are called hard assets
8		and soft assets, being work in process, and return
9		of capital, and things of that nature?
10		A. I think it is more a question of
11		whether or not the terms of the partnership
12		agreement have been met.
13	108.	Q. Thank you. Now, if I could ask you
14		to go back to paragraph 2 of your affidavit. You
15		indicate in paragraph 2 that you make the affidavit
16		for the purposes of correcting inaccuracies that
17		were brought to your attention and to your partner's
18		attention. Do you see that?
19		A. Yes.
20	109.	Q. And can you tell me, who was it that
21		brought the inaccuracies to your attention?
22		A. When I attended at the hearing on
23		February 23rd, 2010 and I listened to your
24		submissions, Mr. Ranking, I became aware that things
25		did not appear, or certainly did not seem to be in

1		accordance with my understanding.
2	110.	Q. So that is something that you heard
3		yourself, Ms. Duncan?
4		A. Yes.
5	111.	Q. All right. And what is it that you
6		heard that did not accord with your recollection?
7		Are all the issues that you heard that gave you
8		concern, and what you have referred to as
9		inaccurate, set forth in your affidavit?
10		A. I would have to consult my notes. I
11		think the majority of them are, but II think I
12		had provided a list to my counsel. My counsel
13		combined them to make the affidavit as efficient as
14		possible.
15	112.	Q. All right. And when you say to your
16		counsel, is that to Mr. Dewart, subsequent to Mr.
17		Epstein?
18		A. Yes.
19	113.	Q. I was just interested in the
20		language that you used in paragraph 2. I had
21		understood fromI don't know if it was from Mr.
22		Epstein or from Mr. Dewart, that you had attended in
23		court and heard things that gave you concern. What
24		I found interesting to noteand again, it may be
25		the person that drafted this affidavit did not reflect precisely your intention, for which I am not 1 2 critical, but paragraph 2 does say that inaccuracies were brought to your attention and to the attention 3 of your partners. Do I now understand, from your evidence, 5 that these inaccuracies were inaccuracies that you, 6 yourself, detected, rather than having Mr. Dewart or 7 someone else bring them to your attention? 8 Α. That is correct, although I then 9 10 went and spoke to my partners and brought it to 11 their attention, so I think maybe the two things got conflated. 12 13 114. Q. All right. And with whom did you 14 speak when you speak of bringing it to the attention of your partners? 15 16 Bill McLean and Tim Anderson. Α. 115. 17 Ο. And what did you tell them? The day after the hearing, I sat 18 Α. down with them at the coffee break, so approximately 19 10:30 in the morning, and just laid out to them 20 essentially the issues that you see here. It was a 21 22 slightly different format obviously because it was just based on what I had heard at court the day 23 before and what I subsequently heard from Mr. Dewart 24

after I raised these issues with him after court.

1		And things developed from there.
2	116.	Q. All right. And what was the
3		response of your partners? Did they share your view
4		that these were matters that had to be dealt with by
5		way of filing an affidavit and bringing the
6		inaccuracies to the attention of the court?
7		A. We believed that the inaccuracies
8		had to be corrected. We wished to give Mr. McKenzie
9		the opportunity to do that. We asked him to correct
10		the inaccuracies. He told us that we were mistaken.
11		We then sought our own independent counsel for
12		advice as to how we should proceed in these
13		circumstances.
14	117.	Q. I was actually going to delve into
15		that because I was interested to know if you had
16		actually spoken with Mr. McKenzie to ask him to
17		correct the inaccuracies. Who actually spoke with
18		him?
19		A. I believe that Mr. Dewart actually
20		spoke to him.
21	118.	Q. Do you know when?
22		A. It would have been between February
23		24th and 27th.
24	119.	Q. Do you know what he said?
25		MR. EPSTEIN: I think we are getting

1		into an area of solicitor/client privilege
2		here. Mr. Dewart was Mr. McKenzie's
3		counsel at the time, and I think those
4		discussions are subject to solicitor/client
5		privilege.	/R
6	120.	MR. RANKING: I am going to reserve my
7		position with respect to whether this is
8		privileged or not.

11	121.	Q. But for my purposes, I understand
12	that M	Mr. Dewart asked Mr. McKenzie to correct the
13	inaccu	racies and he refused; is that fair?
14		A. I don't know the substance of their
15	conver	sation. I know that Mr. Dewart then told us
16	he had	to get off the record for conflict. That is
17	the ex	tent of my knowledge.
18	122.	Q. And did you or your partners speak
19	with M	Ir. McKenzie?
20		A. We did not speak with him.
21	123.	Q. Did you write him a letter with
22	respec	t to correcting the inaccuracies?
23		A. There were e-mail communications.
24	124.	MR. RANKING: All right. Will those be
25		produced, Mr. Epstein?

1		MR. EPSTEIN: I am sorry, I am just

9		that he correct the inaccuracies, or what
10		Ms. Duncan very fairly characterized as his
11		inaccuracies, but that there were e-mails.

1	127.	Q. Ms. Duncan, do you recall the gist
2		of Mr. McKenzie's response?
3		A. I believe he advised me that I was
4		potentially treading in areas of solicitor/client
5		privilege, that I did not know the whole story, that
6		I did not understand the full situation, and that I
7		should stay out of it.
8	128.	Q. And, again, can you give me the
9		approximate time frame when Mr. McKenzie delivered
10		that message to you?
11		A. I would have sent the first e-mail
12		the morning after the court hearing, so his reply
13		would have been somewhere after that.
14	129.	Q. And the morning after the court
15		hearing would have been February 24th?
16		A. Yes.
17	130.	Q. And I take it Mr. McKenzie's
18		response would have been within a week or so?
19		A. Yes.
20	131.	Q. Thank you.
21		A. I am sorry, I became quite ill after
22		the court hearing. My memory is not entirely
23		accurate necessarily.
24	132.	Q. Thank you. And when you indicated
25		that you engaged counsel, I take it that is Mr.

Τ	Dewart?
2	MR. EPSTEIN: No.
3	THE DEPONENT: No. We sought advice
4	from LawPro. We also sought independent
5	counsel because LawPro's coverage was
6	limited.
8	BY MR. RANKING:
9	133. Q. Thank you. Now, if I go back to our
10	Notice of Motion, I servedand I had an extra
11	copy. This is the Notice of Motion which I have
12	given to everybody. I am handing across to you, and
13	I have provided copies to your counsel, the Further
14	Further Amended Notice of Motion, returnable June
15	7th, 8th, 9th, et cetera, for the cost hearing.
16	This motion has gone through a number of
17	iterations, Ms. Duncan, since it was served in July.
18	What I can tell you is those portions of the Notice
19	of Motion that are not underlined existed in the
20	original motion. I take it that we can agree that
21	my process server served Mr. McKenzie and all the
22	partners at Crawford McKenzie with the motion record
23	in July of 2009?
24	A. Copies were left, yes.
25	134. Q. All right. So that, as of July

1		2009, both you and your partners knew that,
2		certainly, PricewaterhouseCoopers, in its own right
3		and on behalf of various defendants, were seeking
4		costs on a full indemnity scale against, among
5		others, Mr. McKenzie and your firm; is that fair?
6		A. Yes.
7	135.	Q. Okay. And after you were served
8		with the Notice of Motion, what steps did you or
9		your partners take to investigate the conduct of Mr.
10		McKenzie?
11		A. What do you mean by that?
12	136.	Q. Well, if I look at the Notice of
13		Motion, and I would like this to be marked as an
14		exhibit, which I will do momentarily, but I set
15		forth various orders that we seek, and I set out in
16		some detail under paragraph 2 at page 5 the grounds
17		for the motion. And some of those grounds, I
18		respectfully suggest, reflect conduct unbecoming a
19		solicitor. And my question is, did you or your
20		partners take any steps to investigate Mr.
21		McKenzie's activities as we have set forth and as we
22		allege took place in the Notice of Motion?
23		A. At the time, we spoke with Mr.
24		McKenzie and he assured us that the allegations were
25		untrue.

1	137.	Q. And who spoke to Mr. McKenzie?
2		A. I believe that all three of us spoke
3	to him	at various times. I certainlythere was a
4	meeting	on September 3rd, 2009, at which this was
5	discuss	ed in more detail, that Mr. McKenzie assured
6	us that	the allegations were untrue, and we believed
7	him.
8	138.	Q. All right. Did you take notes of
9	that me	eting?
10		A. Not that I recall.
11	139.	Q. Did any of your partners, to the
12	best of	your knowledge?
13		A. I would have no way of knowing that.
14	140.	Q. Will you make inquiries of your
15	partner	s and let me know if they made notes of that
16	meeting	, and if they did, produce those notes?
17		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.	U/I
18
19	BY MR. RANKING:
20	141.	Q. And when you had the meeting, did
21	you hav	re the Notice of Motion before you, and did
22	you rev	riew each paragraph with Mr. McKenzie?
23		A. No.
24	142.	Q. But I take it that you talked
25	general	ly about the Notice of Motion that sought

1		costs against the firm and against Mr. McKenzie,
2		personally, with Mr. McKenzie?
3		A. Yes.
4	143.	Q. And, as I understand your evidence,
5		he gave you assurance not to worry, everything was
6		in hand?
7		A. Yes.
8	144.	Q. And you indicated you had maybe more
9		than the one meeting on September 3rd, 2009. Did
10		you, in fact, have more than one meeting with him?
11		A. Well, I would haveI am sure there
12		was more than one conversation. But this is a very
13		small firm and people would walk into another
14		person's office and have a conversation. I can't
15		those are not scheduled and those certainlyyou
16		know, there are no notes from those sorts of
17		conversations.
18	145.	Q. And what was the nature of those
19		conversations?
20		A. Well, just at various times just
21		checking up on how things were going with Mr.
22		Dewart, or
23	146.	Q. All right. Was anybody assigned to
24		actually look at the files?

A. No.

1	147.	Q. And were any interviews conducted of
2		the staff that worked on the file?
3		A. No.
4	148.	Q. Were any interviews conducted of the
5		associates that worked on the file?
6		A. No.
7	149.	Q. And did you or your partners seek
8		outside legal advice on behalf of the firm after
9		having received this Notice of Motion in July of
10		2009?
11		A. Are you referring to other than from
12		Mr. Dewart?
13	150.	Q. Yes.
14		A. No.
15	151.	Q. And is it fair to say that, until
16		February 23rd, when you were attending in court,
17		that that was the first time where you heard
18		firsthand matters that gave you real concern with
19		respect to how Mr. McKenzie had conducted this file?
20		A. Yes.
21	152.	Q. Thank you. And between July of 2009
22		and February of 2010, was anyone within the firm
23		prescribed to oversee the conduct of the action?
24		A. Not really, no. I was responsible
25		for reporting to the partners when we heard from Mr.

Dewart or Mr. McKenzie, just because that 1 2 information tended to come to me. But the Notice of Motion did not seem to really...other than naming 3 the firm, the Notice of Motion didn't seem to speak to anything that the firm had done. It all seemed 5 to speak to Mr. McKenzie and his clients. Mr. Dewart advised us that he had matters in hand. Mr. McKenzie advised us he had matters in hand. So we 8 stayed out of it. 9 153. 10 Q. Is it fair to say, therefore, 11 summarizing your evidence, that you were really 12 leaving matters in the hands of Mr. Dewart, and to 13 the extent that he reported, you would provide that information to your partners; but, other than that, 14 you were not proactively managing the file? 15 No, we weren't...neither I nor my 16 Α. partners were reviewing documents or taking any 17 active hand in this. We were staying away from it. 18 154. Right. Now, we know that Mr. Dewart 19 Q. was acting for both Mr. McKenzie and your firm. I 20 have seen Mr. McKenzie's affidavit at paragraph 8, 21 where he makes the comment that he understood that firm's interests. Do you see that?

you were dealing with Mr. Dewart with respect to the

1	155.	Q. Is that accurate?
2		A. Yes, I believe I was the contact
3		person for Mr. Dewart, if that's what that means, at
4		the firm.
5	156.	Q. So, insofar as the firm was
6		concerned, you were the contact. And I take it that
7		Mr. Dewart didn't deal with either of your other two
8		partners?
9		A. No.
10	157.	Q. I am correct?
11		A. Yes.
12	158.	Q. All right. And did Mr. Dewart
13		actually report to you, or was he reporting to Mr.
14		McKenzie who, in turn, would give you information?
15		A. He would copy us with reports.
16	159.	Q. And with respect to the factual
17		investigation as to what occurred and what didn't
18		occur, I take it that was solely within the hands of
19		Mr. McKenzie?
20		A. Yes. Mr. McKenzie spent a great
21		deal of time at Mr. Dewart's office preparing the
22		affidavit.
23	160.	Q. And he did not come to you and ask
24		for the assistance of the firm in terms of the
25		background, or getting files, or anything of that

1		nature?
2		A. He did not come to me. He may have
3		asked Sunny Ware or Stacey Ball to provide him with
4		documents, or provide him with information. That
5		would have been standard.
6	161.	Q. But with respect to the firm's
7		interest, the firm did not actively involve itself
8		in the preparation of the affidavit; is that fair?
9		A. That is correct.
10	162.	Q. And with respect to providing
11		instructions to Mr. Dewart, I take it those
12		instructions came from Mr. McKenzie?
13		A. Well, I think the instructions came
14		from LawPro, to be specific?
15		MR. EPSTEIN: Well
16		MR. BRISTOW: No. She just said that
17		MR. EPSTEIN: Just hold on.
18	163.	MR. RANKING: It's okay.
19		MR. BRISTOW: And we are already on
20		notice that we are going after LawPro, all
21		right?
22	164.	MR. RANKING: David, you will have your
23		chance.
24		MR. EPSTEIN: Sorry, I
25		MR. BRISTOW: Look, don't tell her to

1		disregard what sh	ne just said, sir.
2		MR. EPSTEIN:	I didn't say anything
3		about disregardir	ng, Mr. Bristow. Would you
4		mind reading back	the record before II
5		was going to say	something and I couldn't.
6		Mr. Bristow inter	crupted me, didn't give me
7		a chance to
8	165.	MR. RANKING:	I think I can do it.
9		MR. EPSTEIN:	Okay.
10	166.	MR. RANKING:	I think my question, Mr.
11		Epstein, was whet	ther anybody at the firm
12		was providing ins	structions to Mr. Dewart.
13		That was the thru	ast of my question.
14		MR. EPSTEIN:	Right. And to the extent
15		you are asking ab	ooutyour question, I
16		take it, related	to the investigation that
17		was being done wi	th regard to the
18		allegations that	were raised in the Notice
19		of Motion?
20	167.	MR. RANKING:	Yes.
21		MR. EPSTEIN:	Right. So, the question
22		is with regard to	the investigation that
23		was done, those w	were instructionswere
24		any instructions	coming from the firm, or
25		were they all com	ning from McKenzie?

1		THE DEPONENT: No. Those instructions
2		were coming from Mr. McKenzie. I was
3		specifically advised by Mr. Dewart at one
4		point that the firm was background in this
5		motion, and we should not interfere.
7	BY MR. RA	ANKING:
8	168.	Q. So the firm really took a hands-off
9		approach. It did not conduct an investigation of
10		Mr. McKenzie. While it was copied on letters that
11		came from Mr. Dewart, any work to respond to these
12		allegations was dealt with by Mr. McKenzie without
13		the active involvement of you or your partners, and
14		any instructions that were provided to Mr. Dewart
15		really came from Mr. McKenzie; is that fair?
16		A. For the most part, yes.
17	169.	Q. And when you say "for the most
18		part", is there any particular instance that stands
19		out where the firm became actively involved in
20		managing this
21		A. Well, not actively involved in
22		managing it. We just raised on several occasions
23		our concerns over whether there was a separate
24		interest for the firm in this matter, and we were
25		told no. In the way that the motion was framed, no,

1		there wasn't.
2	170.	Q. There was nothing that prevented you
3		or your partners from being more actively involved?
4		A. Not really, no.
5	171.	Q. You could have appointed a partner
6		to investigate Mr. McKenzie's activities?
7		A. That sounds awfully formal for a
8		firm like ours.
9	172.	Q. It may be more formal than you are
10		accustomed to, but there was nothing that prevented
11		you from doing it?
12		A. Except that that is nothing
13		something that really would have occurred to us.
14	173.	Q. But whether it would have occurred
15		to you or not, had you thought of it, you certainly
16		could have carried out an investigation of Mr.
17		McKenzie's handling of the file; isn't that fair?
18		A. Yes.
19	174.	Q. Now, Mr. Dewart was retained in or
20		about August of '09 to represent Mr. McKenzie and
21		your firm. Can you tell me, as of the date of Mr.
22		Dewart's retainer, what steps, if any, did he take
23		to come to you or your partners to investigate the
24		conduct of Mr. McKenzie?
25		MR. EPSTEIN: You are asking what steps

1		Mr. Dewart took on behalf of his clients to
2		pursue his mandate?
3	175.	MR. RANKING: Yes.
4		MR. EPSTEIN: Okay. I am going toI
5		think that is privileged, what
6	176.	MR. RANKING: I am not asking for any of
7		the communications that may have passed. I
8		am asking very simply of your partner to
9		let me know what steps Mr. Dewart took to
10		investigate the conduct of Mr. McKenzie.
11		MR. EPSTEIN: So you are not asking for
12		any content of any exchange of information;
13		you are just asking in a general way what
14		he took
15	177.	MR. RANKING: That is correct.
16		MR. EPSTEIN: Okay. Go ahead and answer
17		that.
18		THE DEPONENT: Can I get clarification
19		on
20
21	BY MR. RANKING:
22	178.	Q. Sure. Would you like me to make my
23	question	more specific?
24		A. Yes, please.
25	179.	Q. All right. Did Mr. McKenzie

1		interview you or any of your partners?
2		A. Mr. McKenzie?
3	180.	Q. Excuse me, I apologize. I seem to
4		haveI keep looking at Mr. McKenzie at the end of
5		the room, sodid Mr. Dewart take steps to
6		interview you or any of your partners concerning Mr.
7		McKenzie's conduct?
8		A. No.
9	181.	Q. Did Mr. Dewart take any steps to
10		interview any associates?
11		A. No.
12	182.	Q. Did Mr. Dewart take any steps to
13		interview any students or staff?
14		A. No.
15	183.	Q. To your knowledge, did Mr. Dewart
16		take any steps to verify what Mr. McKenzie told him?
17		MR. EPSTEIN: Just answer to your
18		knowledge. I mean, she obviously doesn't
19		know what steps Mr. Dewart took to satisfy
20		himself.
21	184.	MR. RANKING: I am very specific in my
22		questions.
23		MR. EPSTEIN: That is fine.
24		THE DEPONENT: I have no knowledge.
25

1	BY MR. RANKING:
2	185.	Q. I take from that answer that you are
3	not awa	re of Mr. Dewart taking any steps to verify
4	what Mr	. McKenzie told him?
5		A. I have no knowledge if he did or he
6	did not	•
7	186.	Q. All right. Will you undertake to
8	make in	quiries of your partners to determine if they
9	know or	have any knowledge, information or belief of
10	any ste	os taken by Mr. Dewart to verify what Mr.
11	McKenzi	e was telling him?
12		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes, we will ask that. U/T
13	187.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
14
15	BY MR. RANKING:
16	188.	Q. And did Mr. Dewart ever come to

18		A. Sorry, let me just have a moment to
19	finish	writing this down.
20	189.	Q. Sorry. Are you ready?
21		A. Yes, thank you.
22	190.	Q. I am sorry, I may have lost my own
23	train o	f thought.
24		MR. EPSTEIN: You asked us to give you
25		an undertaking to ask the partners if they

1		knew o	f steps that Dewart had taken to
2		verify	the information of McKenzie, and we
3		agreed	to give you that undertaking.
4	191.	MR. SI	LVER: And if so, what steps.
5		MR. EP	STEIN: Right.
7	BY MR. RANKING:
8	192.	Q.	And I think I asked the question,
9	but I a	ım just g	oing to ask it again. If I have
10	asked i	.t, I apo	logize. Did Mr. Dewart ever come to
11	the Cra	wford Mc	Kenzie firm to review any of the
12	files?
13		Α.	No. Mr. McKenzie brought the
14	materia	al to Mr.	Dewart.
15	193.	Q.	And do you know what files he took
16	to Mr.	Dewart's	office?
17		Α.	No.
18	194.	Q.	Was Mr. McKenzie the individual
19	solely	responsi	ble for selecting what files he took
20	to Mr.	Dewart's	office?
21		Α.	I don't know.
22	195.	Q.	And do you know what steps, if any,
23	Mr. Dev	art took	to determine if Nelson Barbados was
24	a legit	imate op	erating company?
25		Α.	I have no knowledge.

1	196.	Q. And do you know if Mr. Dewart took
2		any steps to speak with Donald Best?
3		A. I have no knowledge.
4	197.	Q. And do you know if Mr. Dewart took
5		any steps to try to locate Mr. Best?
6		A. I have no knowledge.
7	198.	Q. Do you know if Mr. Dewart took any
8		steps to speak with any third parties to determine
9		whether what he was being told by Mr. McKenzie was,
10		in fact, truthful?
11		A. I have no knowledge until my
12		discussion with Mr. Dewart on February 23rd and
13		24th.
14	199.	MR. RANKING: And we will come to that
15		momentarily. With respect to that last
16		series of questions, Mr. Epstein, will you
17		make inquiries of the partners to determine
18		if they have any knowledge?
19		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.	U/T
20	200.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
21
22	BY MR. R	ANKING:
23	201.	Q. And when you say you have no
24		knowledge, I take from that that you have no
25		information, nor do you have a belief? Or, do you

1		have information or a belief?
2		A. I have no knowledge. IMr. Dewart
3		was carrying out the file, and I don't know the
4		particulars.
5	202.	Q. Right. Is it fair to say, to
6		summarize what I am understanding from your answer
7		is that, to the best of your knowledge, information
8		and belief, Mr. Dewart was reporting to and taking
9		instructions and relying upon Mr. McKenzie for the
10		factual investigation in order to prepare his
11		affidavit to respond to the Notice of Motion that
12		was served in July of 2009?
13		A. I am sorry, could you repeat the
14		question?
15	203.	Q. Yes.
16		A. There are a lot of parts there.
17	204.	Q. To the best of your knowledge,
18		information and belief, I take it that Mr. Dewart
19		was relying entirely upon Mr. McKenzie, and not
20		conducting any independent investigation?
21		A. When we are referring to the
22		preparation of materials from October of 2009?
23		MR. EPSTEIN: I believe your question
24		before made reference again to the
25		investigation that was done with regard to

1		the preparation of the affidavit. If my
2		understanding is correct, the question is
3		that, is it your understanding that Mr.
4		Dewart relied upon information from Mr.
5		McKenzie in preparing that affidavit?
6		THE DEPONENT: I believe so. I don't

2		knowledge, did Mr. Dewart identify that there were
3		three other files that had been opened by Mr.
4		McKenzie relating to the subject matter of the
5		Nelson Barbados litigation?
6		A. I have no knowledge.
7	218.	MR. RANKING: Can you inquire of them
8		and determine if they have any knowledge?
9		MR. EPSTEIN: I just want to clarify. I
10		didn't get the first part of the question.
11		You want us to ask them
12	219.	MR. RANKING: Whether or not the other
13		two partners are aware of Mr. Dewart making
14		inquiries of the firm, or determining that
15		there were three other files opened by Mr.
16		McKenzie in relation to Nelson Barbados.
17		MR. KRAMER: Well, there is a dispute in
18		the evidence as to whether those other
19		files relate to Nelson Barbados. Perhaps
20		you will want to qualify the undertaking.
21		We know the three files we are talking
22		about.
23	220.	MR. RANKING: Right. I am talking about
24		the three files in paragraph 3 of Ms.
25		Duncan's affidavit.

1		MR. EPSTEIN: Right.	U/I
3	BY MR.	RANKING:
1	221.	Q. And I take it, to the extent that
5		you were qualifying your answers perviously, Ms.
6		Duncan, they were qualified because, as of or
7		beginning on the 23rd of February, matters changed
3		dramatically when you heard my submissions in
9		argument before Justice Shaughnessy; is that fair?
LO		A. Yes.
11	222.	Q. And it was at that point in time, I
12		take it, without getting into the details of your
13		communications, of course, that you had privileged
14		discussions with Mr. Dewart that prompted him to
15		make further inquiries, and which ultimately
16		resulted in him withdrawing as both counsel for Mr.
17		McKenzie and the firm?
18		A. Yes.
19	223.	Q. All right. And again, without
20		getting into details of the discussions, I take it
21		that it was as a consequence of the further
22		investigation conducted by Mr. Dewart, some of those
23		matters being set forth in your affidavit upon which
24		I am cross-examining you, that Mr. Dewart felt compelled to withdraw; is that fair?

1		MR. EPSTEIN: Well, you would have to
2		ask Mr. Dewart that as to what compelled
3		him to withdraw.
5	BY MR. RANKING:
6	224.	Q. Not entirely, because certainly Ms.
7	Duncan	let's do it this way. I take it that Mr.
8	Dewart	one of the factors that led to Mr. Dewart
9	withdraw	ingand I am not asking you about the
10	communica	ations, but I take it that by reason of the
11	communica	ations that you had with him, he expressed
12	concern t	to you, without identifying the nature of
13	the commu	unication, and it was the information that
14	is now be	eing set forth in your affidavit sworn April
15	22nd that	was a factor in having him withdraw as
16	counsel t	to your firm?
17		THE DEPONENT: Yes.
18	225.	MR. RANKING: Let's take a short break.
19
20	A BRIEF I	RECESS
21
22	JESSICA A. DUNCAN,	resumed
23	CONTINUED CROSS-EX	KAMINATION BY MR. RANKING :
24	226.	MR. RANKING: Before our break, I had
25		been examining Ms. Duncan in part on the

1		Notice of Motion that was served upon her
2		and her partners in July 2009. I would
3		like to mark that Notice of Motion as the
4		next exhibit, with the qualification that
5		it has been further amended since that
6		time. That will be Exhibit 5.
7		MR. EPSTEIN: Sorry, it has been further
8		amended since?
9	227.	MR. RANKING: Since July 2009.
10		MR. EPSTEIN: Right. I thought that the
11		one that you gave us is the latest version
12		of the Notice of Motion?
13	228.	MR. RANKING: That is correct.
14		THE DEPONENT: The Further Further
15		Amended.
16		MR. EPSTEIN: So this is the latest
17		version of the Notice of Motion?
18	229.	MR. RANKING: Yes.
19	230.	MR. SILVER: So the further amendments
20		of July '09 are reflected in the document?
21		MR. EPSTEIN: Right. That is Exhibit 5?
22	231.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
23
24	EXHIBIT NO.	5 : Further Further Amended Notice of
25		Motion served on Crawford McLean

1		Anderson & Duncan in July 2009
3	BY MR. RANKING:
4	232.	Q. Now, if I could ask you to look to
5	paragrap	h 3 of your affidavit, Ms. Duncan. You have
6	made ref	erence there to the four files that relate
7	to the s	ubject matter of the litigation, and you
8	also mak	e reference at paragraph 11 to Mr.
9	McKenzie	's habit of opening a series of file numbers
10	relating	to large files due to data partition
11	issues.	Can you just explain to me what data
12	partitio	n issues refers to?
13		A. Unfortunately, no, I can't. That
14	was just	what I was told.
15	233.	Q. Can you make inquiries and advise?
16		MR. EPSTEIN: Well, why don't you give
17		thissome information as to what she was
18		told, which, if she can give you that
19		information, I am very happy for her to do
20		that.
21		THE DEPONENT: Yes.
22		MR. EPSTEIN: So, why don't you tell me
23		what you told me.
24		THE DEPONENT: This was not in relation
25		to these files. This was back when I

1		starte	d working with Mr. McKenzie. The
2		file n	umber changed on a file we were
3		workin	g on. I was just told to docket to
4		the ne	w file number, and I was advised by
5		his as	sistant that, because of the manner
6		in whi	ch PCLaw was set up, you could only
7		put a	certain amount of data under a
8		partic	ular file number before the memory in
9		that p	artition would be full, and that was
10		why yo	u had to put a new file number in
11		when t	he data got to be a certain size.
12			I never spoke about it again. I
13		never	questioned it again. It is just
14		that,	since that time, since I started at
15		the fi	rm, on any large file of Mr.
16		McKenz	ie's, file numbers have changed from
17		time t	o time, just the file number you
18		docket	, nothingI mean, the files
19		themse	lves remained physically the same.
20
21	BY MR. RANKING:
22	234.	Q.	And in those cases, is the file name
23	the same	?
24		Α.	Yes.
25	235.	Q.	So that, if it were merely a data

1		partition issue, one would expect there to be
2		another electronic file opened with the same file
3		name and the same file number, correct?
4		A. The same file name and a different
5		file number.
6	236.	Q. Right. The same file name and a
7		different file number, fair enough?
8		A. Yes.
9	237.	Q. But in this case, we have different
10		file names, correct?
11		A. Well, you have two differentthere
12		were definitely two different matters involved. We
13		put it in groups. The Nelson Barbados and the
14		Allard file were separately maintained.
15	238.	Q. Right. And you don't know whether
16		that was because of data partition issues or other
17		issues, correct?
18		A. I have no knowledge of that.
19	239.	Q. Okay. And with respect to each of
20		these files referred to in paragraph 3, and I am
21		most interested in BMC 543, and the other active
22		file, 568, did they have separate correspondence
23		brads, separate document brads?
24		A. Yes, I believe they did. They had
25		separate boxes for correspondence.

1	240.	Q. And when you began, because I know
2		we will get to it, I think probably after the lunch
3		break, when you began working on the file, were you
4		told by Mr. McKenzie the file to which you should
5		docket your time?
6		A. Yes.
7	241.	Q. And I take it that applied equally
8		to the other timekeepers, that Mr. McKenzie would
9		instruct them on how to docket their time?
10		A. Mr. McKenzie or his assistant, yes.
11	242.	Q. All right. Now, when did you first
12		learn that there were multiple files opened with
13		respect to the subject matter of the underlined
14		litigation?
15		A. With respect to Nelson Barbados?
16	243.	Q. Yes.
17		A. With respect to the Nelson Barbados
18		file, I was aware that originally when I was
19		involved in security issues, I was docketing to 568.
20		Then in 2009, when I was working on the allegations
21		of defamation by Miller Thomson, the file number
22		changed in that period that I was docketing to 568,
23		and then I was told to docket to 586.
24	244.	Q. And who told you?
25		A. Sunny Ware.

1	245.	Q. And did she explain why you should
2		docket to one file or the other?
3		A. Well, between those two files, no,
4		because that wasas I said, this was something
5		that would happen on ayou know, it was a regular
6		practice with Mr. McKenzie's files, so it was
7		justwe just changed the file number. That was
8		not of particular note. It was justthat is what
9		we were told.
10	246.	Q. And was it generally known within
11		your law firm that Mr. McKenzie would open multiple
12		files with respect to a complex matter?
13		A. YesI mean, I want to be very
14		careful. When you say "multiple files"what I
15		mean is there would be a file number and then we
16		would be told to docket to a new file number. It
17		would be the same file name each time. It would
18		just be a new file number.
19	247.	Q. Right. And presumably, if I look at
20		the monikers for the various files, I take it that
21		is Bill McKenzie, "BMC"?
22		A. That is Bill McKenzie, C. It runs
23		initials "A", "B", "C", "D", each withinyou have
24		1,000 files in "A"1 to 999 in "A", 1 to 999 in
25		"B", 1 to 999 in "C".

1	248.	Q. And so if I am just looking for Mr.
2		McKenzie's files, I would just look for "BM"?
3		A. Yes. "BM", "A", "B", "C", "D".
4	249.	Q. So I take it it would be a
5		relatively easy task if I wanted to determine how
6		many files Mr. McKenzie had opened with respect to
7		this one, this particular matter using that word to
8		include both Mr. Allard and Nelson Barbados? It
9		wouldn't be difficult to make that determination?
10		You had to do it presumably?
11		A. I searchI just searched client
12		names.
13	250.	Q. And how long did it take you to
14		determine that there were multiple files open with
15		respect to the subject matter of this litigation?
16		A. Well, it didn't take me long for
17		Nelson Barbados Group because I knew that. That was
18		something I had personally known. For the Allard
19		matter, it didn't take long either because I just
20		had to search for the files opened under that name.
21	251.	Q. Were you searching under the file
22		name or under the lawyer name?
23		A. Under the client name.
24	252.	Q. And I take it you knew that Mr.
25		Allard was paying the account, so you would search

under "Peter Allard"?

254.

A. At the time...by the time that I was searching this, yes.

253. Q. All right. Now, at paragraph 6, there is reference to matter number 543, and you quoted from various docket entries. Do you see that?

A. Yes.

Q. And I know that we wrote to you or your counsel to ask who the various lawyers were identified by number, and I am just going to follow up because we have prepared a list of lawyers who docketed time to those files. And if I could ask you, and you don't need to do it now, but if I could ask you by way of undertaking to confirm either the accuracy of this summary, or if you take issue with it, if you could let us know, and if you could also please identify the lawyers for whom we don't have names?

And I can tell you that what we have done is taken the information that you have previously supplied to us for lawyer 4 being Bill McKenzie, or lawyer 12 being Sunny Ware, and identify, where we have been able to, the lawyer that did the work or the assistant that did the work.

1		A. I would have to give you best
2		efforts on that.
3	255.	Q. That is fine.
4		A. We attempted to retrieve some kind
5		of archive or something from our PCLaw database to
6		give us this information. However, we have changed
7		our contract, so we have lost the old list. So all
8		I can do is use my best efforts to look through and
9		try to figure it out.
10		MR. EPSTEIN: So, as I understand it,
11		Mr. Ranking, for example, when we have got
12		number 28, you want to know who the
13		timekeeper is of 28?
14	256.	MR. RANKING: Correct.
15		MR. EPSTEIN: Okay. So we will make our
16		best efforts to find that out.	U/T
17	257.	MR. RANKING: And I think the second
18		part of the undertaking, and I am happy to
19		take it as a negative undertaking, if you
20		take issuewe have identified under each
21		of the files who actually did the work. I
22		believe we have been accurate, but if you
23		take issue with it, if you could let us
24		know?
25		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.	U/T

1	258.	MR. RANKING: Thank you. We can mark
2		this chart as the next exhibit. It will be
3		Exhibit 6. And I apologize to everybody
4		that is here. I should have made more
5		copies, but I will circulate copies of the
6		exhibits to the extent that people want
7		them. Thank you.
8		MR. EPSTEIN: It is called here,
9		"Lawyers who docketed time to files BMC
10		543, 586 and 568", and it is marked as
11		Exhibit 6 to this cross-examination.
12
13	EXHIBIT NO.	6 : Chart called "Lawyers who docketed
14		time to files BMC 543, 568 and 586"
15
16	BY MR. RANKING:
17	259.	Q. Now, in paragraph 6 as well, you
18	indicate	, and I am looking at the last sentence
19	before th	ne enumerated subparagraphs:
20		"The client ledger (which is a complete
21		listing of the dockets and disbursements
22		entered in the file) for 543 contains
23		numerous entries"
24	I take i	t these entries that are set forth in the
25	client le	edger are printed off PCLaw?

Τ		A. That is correct.
2	260.	Q. And, as you say, those are the
3		actual docket entries that would have been entered
4		in by the individual timekeeper?
5		A. Yes.
6	261.	Q. Okay. And do you recall from your
7		review of Mr. McKenzie's transcript that I had asked
8		whether or not Crawford McKenzie retained dockets?
9		A. I am sorry?
10	262.	Q. Do you recall my asking Mr. McKenzie
11		whether or not Crawford McKenzie retained dockets?
12		A. Yes.
13	263.	Q. And do you recall, unless I am
14		mistaken, that his answer was that they did not?
15		A. I believe it was something to that
16		effect, yes.
17	264.	Q. And I take it that you would agree
18		with me that the client ledgers that you have
19		produced are the dockets that were maintained by the
20		timekeepers for the various files set forth in
21		Exhibits A and B?
22		A. Those are the dockets that were
23		entered. Mr. McKenzie would keep his own record of
24		his time and send that to his assistant to enter
25		into PCLaw on his behalf. I mean, I just want to

1		say, technically, if he did not retain those files,
2		he would not have retained his personal dockets.
3	265.	Q. Right. And because Mr. McKenzie, I
4		take it from your evidence, would keep dockets in a
5		manual way?
6		A. He had his own timekeeping method.
7		I believe he just kept a running list either beside
8		him, or on his computer, or something.
9	266.	Q. Right. And I appreciate the
10		clarification, but so that I understand, how is that
11		different from other timekeepers that were entering
12		docket entries in PCLaw?
13		A. Everybody has their own approach.
14		Some people do it directly, some people make a list
15		and give it to an assistant to enter. But,
16		generally, if it is a student or an associate, they
17		would generally be entering their own dockets, and
18		an assistant would be entering their own dockets.
19	267.	Q. I don't know if this assists, but it
20		I could ask you to turn to your Exhibit F. Is that
21		an example of a handwritten docket that has
22		subsequently
23		A. Yes. That is how Ms. Ware would
24		maintain her time for each day, which she would fill
25		the sheet out and then subsequently enter it into

1		PCLaw.
2	268.	Q. Right. And is it your understanding
3		that that is how Mr. McKenzie maintained his dockets
4		as well?
5		A. I don't know exactly what Mr.
6		McKenzie did or didn't do.
7	269.	Q. But while you may not know Mr.
8		McKenzie's practice, certainly, from your evidence
9		and the productions that you have made, Crawford
10		McKenzie was able to retrieve and produce the docket
11		entries for the various files that are attached as
12		exhibits to your affidavit?
13		A. The ones that were entered into
14		PCLaw, yes.
15	270.	Q. And how difficult a task was it for
16		you to retrieve and print out those dockets?
17		A. Well, it took most of the day. I
18		mean, the bookkeeper just trying to find the
19		archived files, and make sure that we could pull
20		them up, and then printing off 300 pages of
21		material. And then searching through for the files,
22		handwritten dockets of Ms. Ware and various other
23		group of
24	271.	Q. And is there any reason, to your
25		knowledge that Mr. McKenzie could not have

1		undertaken that task with the same or a different
2		assistant?
3		A. Well, I can't speak to Mr.
4		McKenzie's actions.
5	272.	Q. There was nothing that you had to do
6		from a technical perspective to permit you to secure
7		or retrieve these documents?
8		A. NoI meanno. When I needed to
9		do it, there was a way to do it.
10	273.	Q. Thank you. Do you have any
11		knowledge, information or belief as to why it is
12		that Mr. McKenzie couldn't produce the documents
13		that you have produced?
14		A. No.
15	274.	Q. Now, at paragraph 12 of the
16		affidavit, you made reference to the affidavit sworn
17		by Mr. McKenzie on October 2, 2009. Did you review
18		Mr. McKenzie's affidavit in draft form before it was
19		sworn by him?
20		A. No, I did not. I regret not doing
21		that.
22	275.	Q. Were you given the opportunity to do
23		that and you refused, or were you simply not
24		afforded the opportunity?

25

A. I was given the opportunity. I

1		justI was preparing for trials at the time, and I
2		had been told Mr. McKenzie was looking after it, and
3		I trusted him.
4	276.	Q. And when you were given the
5		opportunity, was that by Mr. McKenzie or Mr. Dewart?
6		A. Mr. Dewart forwarded a copy to our
7		office.
8	277.	Q. And, to your knowledge, did either
9		of your partners review the affidavit before it was
10		sworn?
11		A. No.
12	278.	Q. And after the affidavit was sworn
13		and served upon the responding parties, when did you
14		first review the affidavit?
15		A. On February 23rd, when I returned
16		home from court.
17	279.	Q. And between the date it was sworn at
18		the beginning of October and February 23rd, to your
19		knowledge, did either of your partners review the
20		affidavit?
21		A. No. They asked me for a copy after
22		I advised them of my concerns.
23	280.	Q. And when did you first review the
24		transcript of the cross-examination of Mr. McKenzie
25		that was taken on the 3rd and 8th of February 20102

1		A. February 23rd to 24th.
2	281.	Q. Thank you. Now, there was certain
3		cross-examination that day, or those days, which was
4		rather illuminating with respect to the work that
5		Mr. McKenzie was doing in Barbados during the latter
6		part of 2005 and throughout 2006 relative to the
7		evidence which he set forth in his affidavit where
8		he said he had only really started working on the
9		action shortly before February 2007. You are aware
10		of that discrepancy?
11		A. That is what led me to, in part,
12		make the affidavit I did.
13	282.	Q. Right. Now, while I understand that
14		you didn't first review the transcript of that
15		cross-examination until on or about the 23rd of
16		February, was the gist of that evidence relayed to
17		you by Mr. Dewart?
18		A. No.
19	283.	Q. All right. In paragraph 12 of your
20		affidavit, you indicate that you searched the firm
21		records extensively, dealing with the incorporation
22		of Nelson Barbados. Do you see that?
23		A. Yes.
24	284.	Q. I take it that all of the searches
25		that are referred to in paragraphs 12 and 13

Ι.		occurred after the 23rd of February?
2		A. Yes. In fact, in this case, it
3		occurred several weeks after.
4	285.	Q. And I take it that also relates to
5		the investigation to which you refer in paragraph
6		13?
7		A. Yes.
8	286.	Q. And I take it all the documents that
9		you reviewed either in paragraphs 12 or 13 were
10		available and in the possession of Crawford
11		McKenzie?
12		A. I am just going to take a moment to
13		review the paragraphs. Well, the firm records, yes.
14		And when I say "the firm records", I am referring to
15		our records of closed files, our records of open
16		files.
17	287.	Q. Okay. In paragraphs 14 and 15, we
18		deal with the work that was performed by Mr.
19		McKenzie's wife, Lisa Carolyn James?
20		A. Yes.
21	288.	Q. I take it that she was Mr.
22		McKenzie's wife in 2005?
23		A. Yes.
24	289.	Q. And remains so today?
25		A. As far as I know.

1	290.	Q. And is Ms. James still providing
2		services to Crawford McLean?
3		A. No.
4	291.	Q. And you deal at the end of paragraph
5		15 with the invoices that she was submitting. Do
6		you have a file with respect to the invoices that
7		were being submitted by Ms. James?
8		A. There may be. Our files are
9		maintained in the basement of a 108-year-old
10		building. I believe we still have the accounting
11		records for 2005 somewhere in the basement.
12	292.	Q. Do you know the name of her firm?
13		This isn't a skill-testing question.
14		A. I think it's just her name.
15	293.	Q. All right. And I take it that you
16		weren't able to locate any invoices for the
17		incorporation of Nelson Barbados that were submitted
18		by Ms. James?
19		A. No.
20	294.	Q. In paragraph 16, you go on to deal
21		with certain docket entries which you say you
22		believe relate to the incorporation of Nelson
23		Barbados. I am interested to take your attention to
24		subparagraph (a) where you replicate there, there
25		was:

1		"Call from PA, review documents from JK
2		and JG and security documents"
3		Do you know what documents Mr. McKenzie reviewed
4		when the docket says "review documents"?
5		A. No.
6	295.	Q. I take it there is a correspondence
7		file for file 543 to which you could make reference?
8		A. I believe there is a box or possibly
9		two boxes of correspondence.
10	296.	Q. Right. But to be fair to you, if I
11		were to ask you to go back to October 24, 2005
12		well, first of all, do you have any knowledge,
13		information or belief as to the documents that Mr.
14		McKenzie would have been reviewing in October of
15		2005?
16		A. No.
17	297.	Q. And I am also particularly
18		interested to know what the security documents are
19		to which that docket references. Do you have any
20		knowledge, information or belief as to the security
21		documents?
22		A. No.
23	298.	Q. You are aware that there is a
24		reference in the Statement of Claim to certain
25		security documents, or security that was held by

1		Nelson Barbados over certain shares in Kingsland
2		Estates?
3		A. Yes.
4	299.	Q. I take it you appreciate why this
5		particular docket entry is one of particular
6		interest to me?
7		A. Yes.
8	300.	Q. And I take it that, whatever the
9		security documents may or may not have been, that
10		there is reference to them prior to the
11		incorporation of Nelson Barbados, as evident from
12		the docket entry itself?
13		A. Well, I don't know. I don't know
14		what security documents this docket entry refers to
15		I don't.
16	301.	Q. Perhaps we could just leave it at
17		this. Could I ask you, through your counsel, of
18		course, to review the client ledger 543 documents or
19		correspondence file to determine to the best of your
20		ability the documents that were supplied to Mr.
21		McKenzie by Jane Goddard and John Knox, and the
22		security documents to which this docket is
23		referring?
24		MR. EPSTEIN: We will make our best
25		efforts. Ms. Duncan indicates that it may

1		not be information that is easily
2		retrievable, but we will try.	U/I
3	302.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
5	BY MR.	RANKING:
6	303.	Q. In paragraph 18, you deal with the
7		actual incorporation and who may have pushed the
8		button to incorporate, and I know that youI take
9		it you have seen Mr. McKenzie's affidavit sworn
10		April 23rd?
11		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.
12		THE DEPONENT: Yes.
13
14	BY MR.	RANKING:
15	304.	Q. He takes issue with you on this, and
16		I am going to give you an opportunity before I have
17		finished to comment on Mr. McKenzie's affidavit at
18		the end of the day, but I take it that,
19		notwithstanding what you have seen from Mr.
20		McKenzie, that nothing in paragraph 18 has changed
21		insofar as you are concerned?
22		A. No.
23	305.	Q. And when you go on to say that you
24		have been unable to locate anyone in the office to
25		whom Mr. McKenzie may have directed the

1		inquiryand, again, for the purposes of my
2		submissions to Justice Shaughnessy, did you make an
3		extensive inquiry?
4		A. I asked my partners. I asked Ms.
5		Ball and our bookkeeper. I also inquired with Sunny
6		Ware, who is now retired, as to whether she had any
7		knowledge.
8	306.	Q. And all of those individuals were
9		unable to provide information as to the matters in
10		issue?
11		A. That is correct.
12	307.	Q. And when you say your bookkeeper,
13		who is that?
14		A. Presently, her name is Julie James
15		(sic).
16	308.	Q. Was there anyone else to whom you
17		could have directed your inquiries that you may have
18		overlooked?
19		A. Well, there may have been other
20		sorry, I am just trying to take my mind back to
21		2005. Not that I can think of.
22	309.	Q. Okay. Thank you.
23		A. I am sorry, it's Julie Jones.
24	310.	Q. Julie Jones?
25		A. Lisa James, Julie Jones.

1	311.	Q. Paragraphs 19 and 20, I am going to
2		come back to. Paragraph 21 deals with the e-mail
3		issue in KWM External. Is Ms. Ware stilldo you
4		know her current whereabouts? I understand from
5		your last answer that she is now retired?
6		A. Yes, and I do know her current
7		whereabouts.
8	312.	Q. And where is Stacey Ball currently?
9		Is she still employed by Crawford McLean?
10		A. Yes.
11	313.	Q. Paragraph 22, we deal with the
12		Heaslet affidavit, and then you go through some of
13		those e-mails at Exhibit H. I take it that you only
14		first learned of these e-mails at some point after
15		February 23rd?
16		A. No. I was working on the security
17		issues, so I saw some of them, at least. I can't
18		recall what I saw in August and September of 2007,
19		but I would have seen some of them.
20	314.	Q. And do you know the extent or nature
21		of Mr. McKenzie's involvement with respect to the
22		taping of these calls by Mr. Heaslet?
23		A. I think it is accurately reflected
24		in the e-mails. Mr. Heaslet contacted us to advise
25		that he felt there had been a threat personally

Τ		against Mr. McKenzie. He advised that he felt it
2		would be wise to tape that conversation because of
3		other knowledge that we had that there was an actual
4		danger. He had reason to believe that threats had
5		been made and been carried out in the past.
6	315.	Q. And when you say it was Mr.
7		Heaslet's suggestion to tape the calls, I have
8		looked at the e-mails, and I may have overlooked it,
9		but can you identify in the e-mails where Mr.
10		Heaslet makes that recommendation?
11		A. Well, I don't think it is in here
12		that he makes a recommendation. I think it is just
13		his statement that he messed up on the recording
14		when he talks about getting another call. So I am
15		not aware of anything but Mr. Heaslet acting on his
16		own in that regard. That is certainly the
17		information that I was given at the time.
18	316.	Q. And who gave you that information?
19		A. Mr. McKenzie.
20	317.	Q. Right. And you wouldn't know one
21		way or another whether Mr. McKenzie had had a prior
22		call with Mr. Heaslet?
23		A. No.
24	318.	Q. And if I could ask you to look to
25		the third-last page in the book, I draw your

1		attention to an e-mail from Bill McKenzie dated
2		Sunday, August 12th at 7:47 a.m. Do you see that?
3		A. Yes.
4	319.	Q. And I take it you know, from having
5		worked on the security issues, that the two calls
6		were taped on August 10th and August 13th?
7		A. Yes, I believe so.
8	320.	Q. And I take it what you have produced
9		here is a string of e-mails starting with Mr.
10		Heaslet to Mr. McKenzie on August 11th at 8:55 p.m.?
11		Reading from the bottom of the page up.
12		A. Yes.
13	321.	Q. And he is saying, Mr. Heaslet to Mr.
14		McKenzie:
15		"I will be talking with Peter Simmons on
16		Monday, August 13th to discuss his
17		impending disassociation with FOGH"
18		Do you see that?
19		A. Yes.
20	322.	Q. And what do you understand FOGH to
21		mean?
22		A. I don't know.
23	323.	MR. SILVER: Friends of Graeme Hall.
24	324.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.

1	BY MR. RA	ANKING:
2	325.		Q.	And it goes on:
3			"Als	so because of my relationship, I feel
4			I need	to mention the reaction I received
5			from yo	ou and Peter Allard when I delivered
6			his mes	ssage warning that your personal
7			safety	in Barbados could be compromised"
8		Do you se	ee that?	?
9			Α.	Yes.
10	326.		Q.	And then am I reading the e-mail
11		correctly	y that t	che response from Mr. McKenzie is
12		then set	forth i	immediately above at 7:47 a.m., where
13		Mr. McKer	nzie is	then responding to Mr. Heaslet
14		saying:
15			"Sho	ouldn't this be taped?"
16			Α.	Yes. I was mistaken obviously.
17	327.		Q.	All right. So I take it that, as an
18		exhibit t	to your	affidavit, your understanding of
19		this is t	that Mr.	. Heaslet wrote to Mr. McKenzie on
20		August 11	L, 2007,	talking about Mr. McKenzie's
21		personal	safety	and perhaps that of others being
22		compromis	sed, and	d Mr. McKenzie's response is to ask
23		the rheto	orical o	question as to whether the
24		conversat	cion sho	ould be taped; is that fair?
25			Α.	That is what I am seeing in these

1		e-mails, yes.
2	328.	Q. Thank you. And I take it you have
3		no knowledge, information or belief to contradict
4		the evidence you have just given?
5		A. No.
6	329.	Q. And also, if I could take you back
7		to the first e-mail at Exhibit H, and I know you
8		were involved in the security issues, and you have
9		indicated that you may first have seen these when
10		you were working on the file in August of 2007. I
11		am interested that the first e-mail is an e-mail
12		from Mr. Heaslet, and you then have to flip through
13		the first e-mail, and there is a second one. But we
14		ultimately, and there may be a third, come to an
15		e-mail from Peterco Holdings dated August 13th, 2007
16		at 5:43 p.m. Do you see that?
17		A. Yes.
18	330.	Q. And do you know who Barbara Dortch
19		is?
20		A. My understanding is that she was one
21		of Peter Allard's assistants.
22	331.	Q. And is it your understanding, based
23		on that personal involvement with the file, that in
24		2007, together with your review leading up to the preparation of your affidavit, that it was Ms.

1		Dortch, as Mr. Allard's assistant, who actually
2		transcribed the taperecordings of these
3		conversations?
4		A. That is what was suggested in the
5		e-mails, yes.
6	332.	Q. All right. Thank you. Mr. Silver
7		notes that it is a revised transcription. We will
8		worry about the revisions. But, in any event, your
9		best understanding, based on your review of the
10		documents, is that it was Mr. Allard's assistant who
11		transcribed the taperecordings?
12		A. The best that I can say with all
13		accuracy is that it was Mr. Allard's assistant who
14		e-mailed them to us.
15	333.	Q. Thank you. If I could ask you to
16		turn back to your affidavit. In paragraph 23, you
17		talk about the accounts and the removal of the trust
18		statements.
19		A. Yes.
20	334.	Q. And I take it that that was advice
21		that was provided by Ms. Ball?
22		A. Yes.
23	335.	Q. Did you have any discussion with her
24		as to whether the actual descriptions in the accounts were changed in any way?

1		A. My discussion with her was that I
2		asked her to look at the evidence in the transcript.
3		I asked her about the trust statements, and this is
4		the information she gave me about the trust
5		statements. As far as I know, she copied the
6		accounts as we had them, with the exception of the
7		trust statements.
8	336.	Q. Would you be good enough just to
9		make an inquiry of her to confirm that your
10		information is correct?
11		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.	U/T
12	337.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
13
14	BY MR. R	ANKING:
15	338.	Q. And I take it, when the firm
16		customarily sends out accounts, trust statements are
17		customarily appended to those accounts?
18		A. Yes.
19	339.	Q. And when you, as a partner of the
20		Crawford McKenzie firm, refer to an account, do you
21		and your partners consider the trust statements to
22		be a document that is incorporated and constitutes
23		part of an account?
24		A. I do. I don't know about my
25		partners.

1	340.	MR. RANKING:	Would you make inquiries
2		and let us know,	Mr. Epstein?
3		MR. EPSTEIN:	So you want us to ask the
4		partners if they	consider the trust
5		statements to be	e part of the account?
6	341.	MR. RANKING:	Yes, please.
7		MR. EPSTEIN:	Yes.	U/T
8	342.	MR. RANKING:	Thank you.
9
10	BY MR. RANKING:
11	343.	Q. Now, in p	paragraph 24, you go on to
12	deal wi	th the issue of wh	ether accounts were left at
13	reception	on, and the paymen	ts being made by Mr.
14	Allard.	In paragraph 26,	you go on to say that:
15		"[You] have b	een unable to locate any
16		documents sugges	ting that accounts were
17		ever directed to	Nelson et al., or that
18		they were left i	n the drawers at reception
19		to be retrieved.	"
20	Do you :	see that?
21		A. Yes.
22	344.	Q. Did you a	lso make inquiries of
23	others	vithin the firm be	fore making that statement?
24		A. I asked S	tacey Ball to review the
25	correspo	ondence, such as w	re had it, to see if she

1		could locate any cover letters directed to Nelson
2		Barbados. I reviewed the accounting records we had
3		to see if I could locate anything of that nature.
4		We could not locate anything like that. We have not
5		spoken with Staceywith Sunny Ware. That is why
6		said I have not been able to locate any document
7		because I have notthat was the extent of my
8		inquiry.
9	345.	Q. And to the best of your knowledge,
10		information and belief, who was responsible for, in
11		fact, sending accounts to Mr. Allard?
12		A. Ms. Ware.
13	346.	Q. Ms. Ware. Would you undertake to
14		make inquiries of her to determine if she is aware
15		of any accounts ever having been left at reception
16		for collection?
17		MR. EPSTEIN: This is specifically
18		accounts for Peter Allard?
19	347.	MR. RANKING: No. These are the
20		accounts that were marked as Exhibit 10 on
21		the cross-examination of Mr. McKenzie on
22		February 3rd and 8th. Mr. McKenzie gave
23		evidence that the accounts were left at
24		reception to be picked up by Mr. Donald
25		Rost And I understand from naragraph 24

1		of Ms. Duncan's affidavit that she is
2		taking issue with that evidence.
3		MR. EPSTEIN: Right. So you are
4		specifically asking about the accounts that
5		are referenced in Exhibit 10?
6	348.	MR. RANKING: Yes.
7		MR. EPSTEIN: You want us to ask Ms.
8		Ware if she is aware of the accounts having
9		been left at the reception?
10	349.	MR. RANKING: Yes.
11		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.	U/T
12	350.	MR. RANKING: And if she was aware of
13		any accounts having been left at reception,
14		then we would like to know the particulars.
15		MR. EPSTEIN: Sorry, "any accounts", I
16		just want to know"any accounts" is very
17		broad.
18	351.	MR. RANKING: Any accounts within
19		Exhibit 10. I am only talking about
20		accounts that were the subject matter of
21		Mr. McKenzie's cross-examination.
22		MR. EPSTEIN: Thank you. That is fine.	U/T
23		THE DEPONENT: Now, I just want to
24		clarify, though, the import of my evidence.
25		I can't say that accounts weren't left.

All I can say is I found evidence that 1 2 accounts were forwarded to Mr. Allard. I found cover letters, et cetera. I have 3 found no evidence that accounts were left in the form of cover letters or directions 5 or e-mails that would suggest that they 6 7 were left at reception. It doesn't mean they weren't. 8 9 10 BY MR. RANKING: 11 352. I understand, and I think you were Q. 12 very clear in that, and that is why I have asked for 13 the undertaking. But I did appreciate that 14 evidence. I guess you will also recall the evidence 15 that was given by Mr. McKenzie that there was a...however inelegantly as I might put this...I had 16 understood it to be an accordion folder with 17 alphabet 'A' through to 'Z' for materials to be 18 picked up at reception. Are you aware, did that 19 exist? 20 It was not an accordion folder. 21 Α. 22 It's a big, old, metal file cabinet with drawers 23 with letters of the alphabet on them. And if you want a client to pick...if a client is coming to 24

pick something up, you place the item in the drawer

1		with the right letter on it, so that the
2		receptionist knows where to look.
3	353.	Q. And what is the practice customarily
4		carried out by your partners to notify a client that
5		documents are available to be picked up?
6		A. Generally, we would call or e-mail
7		them oryes, generally, it is a telephone call or
8		an e-mail.
9	354.	Q. And is there a document that the
10		client signs to acknowledge having picked up the
11		envelope or whatever the package is?
12		A. I think it depends on the
13		circumstances. Certainly in my practice, if they
14		are coming to pick up a cheque, we have them sign an
15		acknowledgment.
16	355.	Q. All right. And in your experience,
17		having regard to the evidence that you have given
18		which supplements paragraph 24, is it out of the
19		ordinary for you not to have been able to locate a
20		document to evidence that materials were picked up,
21		according to the evidence given by Mr. McKenzie?
22		A. For the most partI can't speak to
23		Mr. McKenzie's practice. I can tell you, for the
24		most part in my practice and in my partner, Tim
25		Anderson's practice, we do a cover letter, and at

1		the top of the address block, there is the notation,
2		"Picked up by client".
3	356.	Q. Thank you. If I could ask you to
4		turn to Exhibit J. This is the e-mail from Sunny
5		Ware to which you make reference in paragraph 24 of
6		your affidavit. I know that inquiries are being
7		made of TD Bank with respect to the wire transfers
8		for the TD Canada Trust account in Canada.
9		My requestand we can talk about this off
10		the recordbut certainly with respect to the
11		inquiries that are being made of TD Bank for both
12		the Canadian account and the U.S. account, I would
13		ask that you make the inquiry for production of the
14		wire transfer documents evidencing payments by Mr.
15		Allard or his company to the U.S. account.
16		And I think what I would like to do, so as
17		not to make it unduly expensive or problematic, is I
18		am going to ask for an undertaking that all accounts
19		be produced with respect to any payments made by
20		Allard or
21		MR. EPSTEIN: All accounts be produced?
22	357.	MR. RANKING: All wire transfer
23		documents evidencing payment of accounts.
24		THE DEPONENT: Can I speak to my lawyer
25		for a moment?

1	358.	MR. RANKING: But what I would say is,
2		while I am asking for a global undertaking,
3		I think that, in order to make an informed
4		decision, Mr. Epstein, I would ask for
5		sample accounts of two or three to be
6		produced without prejudice, that if they
7		don't satisfy us, that we can have
8		production of the other wire transfer
9		documents.
10		MR. EPSTEIN: As you know, we have been
11		in touch with the bank to make inquiries
12		about the wire transfer documents, and they
13		are going to be advising us as to what is
14		available, and what is going to be the cost
15		of producing it. What you are asking for,
16		as I understand it, is you are saying,
17		without waiving your right to ask for all
18		of them at some later point, you are asking
19		if we will provide sample wire transfers,
20		two or three wire transfers, which you
21		would review and then you would determine
22		if you need to see additional ones? Is
23		that what you are asking?
24	359.	MR. RANKING: Let me put it this way, I
25		think the undertaking that you gave

1		previously referred to the wire transfers
2		from Mr. Allard or his company in the
3		Canadian TD Bank trust account.
4		MR. EPSTEIN: Right.
5	360.	MR. RANKING: I have not previously seen
6		the document that is now being attached as
7		Exhibit J to Ms. Duncan's affidavit. I am
8		now expanding that undertaking to request
9		that any wire transfer documents that were
10		made to pay accounts relating to the
11		subject matter of the litigation that is
12		referred to in Ms. Duncan's affidavit, any
13		wire transfer documents from Mr. Allard or
14		his company to the U.S. account of the TD
15		Bank also be produced. I am seeking that
16		undertaking.
17		But before I compel you to answer
18		the undertaking which I am seeking, I am
19		suggesting that if you give me two or three
20		examples, that might suffice so as to
21		obviate the necessity of having to pull all
22		the documents. And Ms. Duncan does want to
23		talk to you, so
24		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.
25	361.	MR. RANKING: And I am happy that you

1		speak with her before you answer my
2		undertaking, if that is of any assistant.
3	362.	MR. SILVER: Well, I want to make sure I
4		understand, too, what
5		MR. EPSTEIN: Perhaps we can have a
6		discussion over the lunch break aboutwe
7		are willing to assist you with this, but
8		there are concerns about the scope of the
9		undertaking and what may be involved, so
10	363.	MR. RANKING: I don't want to be
11		unreasonable. I think I am entitled to it,
12		but I want to be fair to you, and I am
13		happy to discuss it over the lunch hour.
14		MR. EPSTEIN: All right.
15	364.	MR. SILVER: Sorry to interrupt, but why
16		don't we have a discussion off the record
17		now, nail this down now, and maybe it will
18		be the lunch break? Because I am
19		interested in this, and I don't want
20		tomaybe the best way to do it is with an
21		off-the-record discussion and then come
22		back on the record and confirm exactly what
23		the undertaking is.
24	365.	MR. RANKING: Can we do this: Although
25		I very rarely disagree with Mr. Silver,

1		given	the number	of counsel that want to
2		ask qı	uestions, I	think it is better done
3		over t	the lunch h	our so that we can at least
4		get ar	nother ten	minutes of examination
5		done?
6		MR. E	PSTEIN:	That is fine.
7	366.	MR. RA	ANKING:	Thank you.
8
9	BY MR. RANKING:

13	Before	I get to	those tru	st ledgers, I have certain

16		Α.	Yes.
17	368.	Q.	And how 1	ong have you known him?
18		Α.	Since the	e year 2000.
19	369.	Q.	And in wh	at capacity do you know
20	him?
21		Α.	He was ac	ting as an investigator on

23	370.	Q.	And these	e are what have otherwise

25		Α.	Yes.

1	371.		Q.	All right. And how many files did
2		you work	on wit	h Mr. Best?
3			A.	He was involved in a great deal of
4		them. I	worked	closely with Mr. Best on about three
5		of them.
6	372.		Q.	And how many casesof these
7		satellit	e cases	did Mr. McKenzie have in which he
8		was usin	g Mr. B	est?
9			Α.	That would be quite a few. Any case
10		that inv	olved i	nvestigation, he would have Mr. Best
11		on.
12	373.		Q.	I take it that Mr. Bestand
13		certainl	y based	on your knowledge of Mr. Best and
14		Mr. McKe	nzie, t	hey had a close association?
15			Α.	Yes.
16	374.		Q.	And I take it the association was,
17		in fact,	greate	r than that set forth in the
18		affidavi	t of my	student, Mr. Kwidzinski?
19			Α.	Well, could you specify what the
20	375.		Q.	Yes. Let me tell you, it is
21		interest	ing wha	t happens when things get filed on
22		Internet	blogs,	but I had thought there had been
23		some ass	ociatio	n between Mr. Best and Mr. McKenzie
24		of some	eight o	r nine cases. I am told that,
2.5		indeed.	Mr. Bes	t and Mr. McKenzie have worked on at

1		least twenty cases together.
2		A. I wouldn't be surprised.
3	376.	Q. All right. So that doesn't come as
4		a surprise to you?
5		A. No.
6	377.	Q. And how would you, Ms. Duncan,
7		characterize Mr. McKenzie's relationship with Mr.
8		Best?
9		A. They were very close. They
10		understood each other very well in terms of how to
11		work together on a case. Mr. Best understood how
12		Mr. McKenzie wanted the cases done. Mr. McKenzie
13		trusted Mr. Best to carry out his role, whatever it
14		was, in a very competent way.
15	378.	Q. And to your knowledge, did Mr.
16		McKenzie ever use any other private investigator for
17		his satellite cases?
18		A. At times, I believe that, for
19		example, on some of the pay-per-view files where we
20		were going after people for illegally showing boxing
21		matches or wrestling matches without paying for them
22		for money, that other investigators would be hired,
23		because you would be talking about ten or twenty or
24		thirty bars across the country.

25 379. Q. I see. So it was a matter of

1		geography that Mr. Best couldn't handle those
2		matters, so that Mr. McKenzie would hire someone
3		else?
4		A. Or it may simply be the fact that
5		that wasn't really an involvedan involved case to
6		carry out. Mr. Best had a very extensive set of
7		skills that were best used on the more sophisticated
8		cases.
9	380.	Q. Would it be fair to say that Mr.
10		Best was Mr. McKenzie's primary private
11		investigator?
12		A. For certain matters, yes.
13	381.	Q. Some have referred to Mr. Best as
14		Mr. McKenzie's go-to guy. Would that be a fair
15		A. Yes.
16	382.	Q. Thank you. Is it also true that Mr.
17		McKenzie acted for Mr. Best?
18		A. I don't know that hewe haven't
19		been able to locate any files. We have located some
20		correspondence that would indicate Mr. McKenzie
21		assisted Mr. Best with an MTO investigation. As
22		II, at one time, prepared a marriage contract for
23		Mr. Best.
24	383.	Q. Does the name Dean Love mean
25		anything to you?

1		Α.		Yes.
2	384.	Q.		Will you agree or disagree that, in
3		fact, Mr. M	cKenz	zie may well have represented Mr.
4		Best in a Ma	anito	bba action?
5		Α.		I have no knowledge of that. I am
6		aware that I	Mr. I	Love named a lot of people in various
7		lawsuits, in	nclud	ding Mr. McKenzie. I know who
8		represented	our	firm, and that is the extent of my
9		knowledge o	f the	e Manitoba actions.
10	385.	Q.		Okay. Do you know the current
11		whereabouts	of M	Mr. Best?
12		A.		No, I don't.
13	386.	Q.		Do you have any contact details,
14		other than	the c	details that are set forth at the
15		bottom of the	he pa	age on NIS, that we will get to this
16		afternoon?
17		Α.		No.
18	387.	Q.		All right.
19		A.		And I mean, other than the ones set
20		out in Mr.	Kwidz	zinski's affidavit.
21	388.	Q.		Right. Now, you also worked
22		directly wi	th Mr	c. McKenzie on those cases, correct?
23		Α.		Yes.
24	389.	Q.		And I take it, when you were working
25		on the sate	llite	e cases, you were working closely

1		with him	?
2			A.	With?
3	390.		Q.	Mr. McKenzie?
4			A.	Yes.
5	391.		Q.	And by reason of your association on
6		a profess	sional k	pasis and your opportunity to work
7		with him	on a da	ay-to-day basis, I take it you
8		understo	od how h	ne would manage a file and document a
9		file?
10			A.	Yes.
11	392.		Q.	And I take it that you were familiar
12		with the	way he	practised in terms of documenting
13		matters?
14			A.	Yes.
15	393.		Q.	And when I cross-examined Mr.
16		McKenzie	, he cei	rtainly led me to believe that he was
17		not an as	ssiduous	s notetaker. Did you read that
18		portion o	of the t	transcript?
19			Α.	Yes.
20	394.		Q.	And, in particular, I asked him
21		whether o	or not h	ne had taken notes of his meetings
22		with Mr.	Best.	Do you recall that?
23			Α.	Yes.
24	395.		Q.	I also asked whether he had taken
25		notes of	his mee	etings with Mr Knox Do you recall

1		that?
2		A. Yes.
3	396.	Q. And before I ask you questions with
4		respect to whether or not notes might exist
5		concerning meetings or discussions with either of
6		those individuals, given your observations, would
7		you agree that Mr. McKenzie is a meticulous
8		notetaker?
9		A. Mr. McKenzie is meticulous in his
10		docketing. As far as notes may be concerned, he
11		takes notes when there is a hearing proceeding, but
12		he generally would rely on someone else to take
13		notes on meetings, or he would place his notes in an
14		e-mail, I think.
15	397.	Q. And you are aware that he said that
16		there were no notes of his meetings with Mr. Best
17		and Mr. Knox?
18		A. Yes.
19	398.	Q. And you are aware, as well, he
20		answered an undertaking to say there were no notes
21		in the files?
22		A. That is correct.
23	399.	Q. Now, I knowand I am not asking
24		you to do thisI know you have reviewed the files
25		extensively for the purposes of preparing your

U/T

1		affidavit?
2		A. Not necessarily extensively. We are
3		talking about, I believe, twelve or so boxes of
4		material.
5	400.	Q. Based on that review and
6		appreciating the qualification that you have given
7		me, were you able to identify any notes taken by Mr.
8		McKenzie with respect to meetings with Mr. Knox or
9		Mr. Best?
10		A. No, as I said, other than the
11		e-mails or dockets that we have produced.
12	401.	Q. And did he have e-mails to Mr. Best?
13		A. We did not locate any.
14	402.	Q. All right. Now, Mr. Peter Allard,
15		are you familiar with him?
16		A. Not personally, no.
17	403.	Q. You never met him?
18		A. Never.
19	404.	Q. And do you know his current
20		whereabouts?
21		A. I know nothing, other than contact
22		information we have in the files.
23	405.	Q. Will you provide that to me by way
24		of undertaking, if you don't have it now?
25		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.

8	408.		Q.	And who is	s that?
9			Α.	Charles or	r Chuck All	lard.
10	409.		Q.	Is that be	ecause of t	the Allard
11		family's	inter	est in teled	communicat	ions?
12			A.	That is co	orrect. I	believe the	ey may

1		various files that are referenced in your affidavit?
2		A. I have not been able to locate them.
3	412.	Q. And does that apply equally with
4		respect to his responsibility for paying the
5		accounts?
6		A. In terms of whether I could find a
7		written agreement?
8	413.	Q. Yes.
9		A. That is right. I did not find any
10		written agreements in what remains in our office.
11	414.	Q. And when I refer to Mr. Allard's
12		company, I am referring to Peterco Holdings. Is
13		that your understanding, that that company is
14		closely held by Mr. Allard?
15		A. Yes.
16	415.	Q. And are you aware of any other
17		closely held companies of Peter Allard, other than
18		Peterco Holdings?
19		A. I am not aware of the details. I
20		believe he has a number of other corporations.
21	416.	Q. And certainly, Peterco Holdings was
22		also responsible for paying, and in fact did pay,
23		some of the accounts at Crawford McKenzie, correct?
24		A. That is the source of my knowledge,
25		is the fact that accounts were paid.

1	417.		Q.	And your knowledge, that is gleaned
2		from the	wire t	cansfer documents?
3			A.	That is right.
4	418.		Q.	And from the entries on your
5		ledgers,	correct	: ?
6			Α.	Yes.
7	419.		Q.	Which we will review this afternoon.
8		To your	knowled	ge, did Mr. Best pay any accounts of
9		Nelson B	arbados'	?
10			Α.	The only reference I found was on
11		the very	first	crust statement, I think. I think
12		there wa	s one t	rust statement referring to some
13		400-or-s	ome dol:	lars received fromshown as
14		received	from Ne	elson Barbados.
15	420.		Q.	Why don't we do this: I will ask
16		you if y	ou coul	d perhaps get me that reference over
17		the lunc	h hour?
18			MR. EPS	STEIN: Okay.

20	BY MR. R	ANKING:
21	421.		Q.	But aside from some payment of $400,
22		was ther	e any o	ther evidence that Mr. Best paid any
23		of the a	ccounts	of Nelson Barbados?
24			Α.	Not that I found.
25	422.		Q.	And did you find, in the course of preparing your affidavit and reviewing the files, 1 2 any evidence that any members of the Knox family paid the accounts of Crawford McKenzie? 3 4 Α. No. 5 423. Ο. And so that there is no misunderstanding for the record, when I use the 6 phrase "Knox family", I am including in that moniker 7 John Knox, Marjorie Knox, Jane Goddard and Cathleen 8 Davis. 9 As far as I could see in our trust 10 Α. 11 records, the funds came from either Mr. Allard, 12 Peterco Holdings, or they are shown as coming from Nelson Barbados. 13 14 424. Q. Right. And what we will do this afternoon...in fact, we can do it right now. When 15 it is shown as coming from Nelson Barbados, I think 16 you also produced evidence that, in fact, when 17 Nelson Barbados paid accounts, the actual source of 18 the funds which permitted Nelson Barbados to make 19 the payments was, in fact, Allard or Peterco 20 Holdings, correct? 21 22 I don't know. I would have to rely 23 on the banking documents for that. All right. Well, let me just turn 425.

                                 I believe that is another of Mr.

                          Q.
25 that. I apologize. And it says there, after

1		dealing with cash that is going to go to Jane
2		Goddard:
3		"NB is paying for the work.
4		Accordingly, when doing the accounting
5		including the 1,000, it comes out of NB's
6		account, as eventually it may be a taxable
7		disbursement that has to be treated
3		accordingly"
9		And we were talking about advances that are being
10		made, as I understand it, from Peter Allard to
11		Nelson Barbados, and there are certain tax reasons,
12		as I understand these e-mails, for the funds to be
13		paid by Nelson Barbados. Is that your
14		understanding?
15		A. No. I believe that referred to Mr.
16		McKenzie anticipating being successful in the
17		proceeding, and having an account receiving costs.
18	429.	Q. I think that was one aspect of it,
19		but I think there may also have been an issue with
20		respect to taxable disbursements, but
21		A. Not in this e-mail. There are other
22		discussions
23	430.	Q. I agree.
24		A. There are other discussions with
25		respect to taxation issues But in this e-mail. he

1		is referring to his anticipation of receiving costs
2		on a successful conclusion.
3	431.	Q. I agree with that. If you turn to
4		the next e-mail, Ms. Duncan, you will see there is a
5		further e-mail from Mr. McKenzie to Peter Allard,
6		copied to Mr. Flynn, and the subject is "Monies
7		advanced by PA to Nelson Barbados"?
8		A. Yes.
9	432.	Q. And as I read this e-mail, what was
10		happening was Mr. Allard was, in fact, providing
11		funds to permit Nelson Barbados to pay the accounts
12		at Crawford McKenzie?
13		A. That would be what that e-mail
14		suggests, yes.
15	433.	Q. And I take itand I can take you
16		to the next e-mail of June 11th, in the fourth full
17		paragraph:
18		"Re NB"
19		And I take it this is an e-mail from Mr. McKenzie
20		where it says:
21		"Re NB: I expect the best idea is for
22		NB to set up a dedicated account to pay its
23		legal bills and any cost orders. You [and
24		this is being addressed to Peterco
25		Holdingsl can provide any money that you

1		loan to it by wiring it into the account.
2		It will pay its own bills out of that
3		account"
4		Again, that e-mail is consistent with the previous
5		answer you gave with respect to Mr. Allard or
6		Peterco Holdings funding Nelson Barbados to permit
7		Nelson Barbados to pay your firm accounts?
8		A. Yes.
9	434.	Q. There is a series of other e-mails
10		that I was going to take you through. Having regard
11		to the time, I am going to say, is there anything
12		else in these e-mails relative to the line of
13		questions that I am asking you that you want to
14		bring to my attention?
15		MR. EPSTEIN: That is a broad question.
16		THE DEPONENT: I would have to look at
17		that over lunch, I think.
18	435.	MR. RANKING: It is not an appropriate
19		question at all, but I am just trying to
20		move it along.
21		MR. EPSTEIN: I know. It is a broad
22		question. I mean, if you want to ask her a
23		specific question
24	436.	MR. RANKING: That is fine.
25		MR. EPSTEIN:but it is very

1		difficult
2
3	BY MR. R	ANKING:
4	437.	Q. Well, let's finish off with this
5		question. Based on my review of these e-mails that
6		you have attached as Exhibit L to your affidavit and
7		the earlier evidence that you have given, although
8		this afternoon we are going to see payments being
9		made by Nelson Barbados to the Crawford McKenzie
10		firm, I take it that we can agree that, while the
11		immediate or the direct payment came from a Nelson
12		Barbados account to Crawford McKenzie, that the
13		source of the funds, in fact, emanated either from
14		Peter Allard or one of his companies; is that fair?
15		A. I would have to look at the banking
16		records to know.
17	438.	Q. But todayand the reason that you
18		attached these e-mails to your affidavit and made
19		the statements you did in paragraph 27 was in
20		support of that proposition; isn't that fair?
21		A. I believe that our records show that
22		Mr. Allard was the source of funds. I can't say the
23		mechanism by which the funds were delivered. I
24		don't know that.
25	439.	Q. Fair enough. And apropos your

1	earlier	comment that, other than $400 of it being
2	paid by	Mr. Best, you are not aware of anyone else
3	paying y	our firm's accounts, other than Mr. Allard
4	or Peter	co Holdings; isn't that fair?
5		A. I believe that is correct. As I
6	said, so	me of it is shown as coming from Nelson
7	Barbados	. Again
8	440.	MR. SILVER: Shown where, in the trust
9		ledger?
10		THE DEPONENT: On the trust ledger, it
11		says, "Received from Nelson Barbados", but
12		I would have to look at the banking
13		documents to know exactly the mechanism.
14	441.	MR. RANKING: I am happy to break there.
15
16	A LUNCHE	ON RECESS
17
19	CONTINUED CROSS-E	XAMINATION BY MR. RANKING
20	442.	MR. RANKING: After we broke for lunch,
21		counsel had an opportunity to discuss the
22		undertakings with respect to the production
23		of further wire transfer documents from the
24		Toronto-Dominion Bank, and I think Mr.
2.5		Silver has an accurate note of the conclusion of those discussions. So if I

2 can turn it over to Mr. Silver. 443. MR. SILVER: Thank you. I think it is 3 pretty simple. I just want Mr. Epstein's confirmation that we have got these 5 undertakings right, and they are a combination of the undertakings given on February 3rd and 8th, and then the one that Mr. Ranking asked of Ms. Duncan this 9 10 morning. 11 And I think that what we have agreed to off the record is that previously, there 12 13 was an undertaking given to get the TD Bank 14 wire transfer documents and/or particulars 15 for every wire transfer into a Canadian 16 dollar account. That was the undertaking previously given. And then I just want to 17 add for clarity that we are looking for 18 wire transfer particulars for every wire 19 20 transfer into a Canadian dollar account in 21 any of files 543, 587, 568 and 586, which, 22 of course, we only found out about the other file numbers after we cross-examined 23 24 Mr. McKenzie. 25 MR. EPSTEIN: Yes. Those are the

1		numbersthese are
2	444.	MR. SILVER: Those are the numbers in
3		paragraph 3.
4		MR. EPSTEIN: In paragraph 3?
5	445.	MR. SILVER: Yes. So do we have that
6		undertaking? And, Mr. Epstein, I am not
7		avoiding the discussion we had, which was
8		your position is, "We will get a quote and
9		tell you how much it is, and if you guys
10		agree to pay for it, we will go ahead with
11		it."
12		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.
13	446.	MR. SILVER: And our position is, we
14		will cross that bridge when we know what
15		the quote is.
16		MR. EPSTEIN: Fair enough.
17	447.	MR. SILVER: Not accepting that it is
18		our obligation, or not yet, but we will get
19		there. But the undertaking is right?
20		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.	U/T
21	448.	MR. SILVER: And then secondly, and this
22		is the additional part that Mr. Ranking got
23		and I am confirming, is that we are
24		askingyou have undertaken to provide the
25		same TD Bank wire transfer particulars for wire transfers into a U.S. dollar account for the same files, with the caveat that a sampling of three or four of those wire transfers might be sufficient.

And so, Mr. Ranking asked that we be provided with three or four from the U.S. dollar account, and we reserve the right to seek more. Now, it may be with the TD Bank that that doesn't make it any easier. I don't know. We will have to cross that bridge, but that was the undertaking given, or that was the request made this morning. I just want to confirm that that is the undertaking being given.

MR. EPSTEIN: Yes. That is fine, subject to the same qualification we gave before. It is subject to the issue of payment of costs, and you have outlined your position and we have outlined ours.

I am just wondering, Mr. Ranking, with regard to the former undertaking, and we have undertaken...the request that we made of the bank was for all of the wire transfer records. I am wondering if, in the same way that you are...with regard to the U.S. dollar bank accounts, you are 1 2 content to initially look at a sampling of three or four wire transfers. 3 Would you be content...and this just may...I am also very mindful of the timing 5 issues that we have in this lawsuit. Would you be content for initially to be provided with a sampling of three or four wire transfers to the Canadian accounts without 9 waiving your right to get full production 10 11 in due course? 449. MR. SILVER: I am not. I know you asked 12 Mr. Ranking. I am not, and I will tell you 13 14 why. There are a lot of these trust 15 entries that say "Received from Nelson 16 Barbados", and we all suspect that even though it says "Received from Nelson 17 Barbados", it came from Peter Allard, and I 18 19 want to nail that down. 20 There are also wire transfers that 21 came in to pay amounts other than to the 22 law firm, and there are some in particular 23 that I am interested in. And so the sampling would be pretty large if we limit 24 25 it to a sampling, as opposed to getting it

1		all.
2		MR. EPSTEIN: That is fine.
3	450.	MR. RANKING: And just a follow-up, when
4		this line of questioning began, I had put
5		to Ms. Duncan Exhibit J to her affidavit,
6		and always rushing in where angels fear to
7		tread, I just want to make sure there is
8		only one Canadian account and one U.S.
9		account, whether those are the accounts
10		that we were referring to in Exhibit J.
11		But, presumably, the whole issue
12		here is we need an undertaking to deal with
13		the wire transfer payments that were made
14		by Mr. Allard or his company to pay these
15		accounts. And I am assuming that these are
16		the only two accounts, the one Canadian
17		account and the one U.S. account maintained
18		by Crawford McKenzie, but if there are
19		others, I take it that it would extend to
20		that as well?
21		THE DEPONENT: Yes. To my knowledge, we
22		only had the two trust accounts, but I
23	451.	MR. RANKING: If that is different, you
24		will let us know?
25	452.	MR. SILVER: See, and the other thing

1 that may be...I am sorry that I am 2 participating so much now, but it always occurred to me that the only reason we went 3 to the TD Bank records was because of a concern as to whether or not the firm had 5 records proving where the wire transfers were coming, because your firm and my firm, Ian, I suspect, we wouldn't have to go to the bank to give particulars of where wire 9 transfers came into our accounts. 10 11 And it seems to me, again, without 12 detracting from the undertakings given, but does the firm have records that confirm 13 14 where the wire transfers came from? 15 Because if that were the case, then we might not need to go to the TD Bank. 16 453. MR. RANKING: I concur with that. 17 THE DEPONENT: That is something we can 18 try to check. And I am not trying to be 19 20 difficult, but we have been through two 21 bookkeepers since the bookkeeper that was 22 working at the time in question. So we can 23 certainly examine the accounting records in 24 our possession and determine if we have 25 that in our possession. And would that be

1		an alternative to the bank
2	454.	MR. SILVER: Well, if we
3		THE DEPONENT:if we locate
4	455.	MR. SILVER:get conclusive evidence
5		that this wire transfer that was made on
6		this day came from Peter Allard, or
7		Peterco, or whoever it came from, and it is
3		evidence that is reliable, then you don't
9		need to go to the bank to get confirmation
10		of otherwise reliable evidence.
11		MR. EPSTEIN: I understand whatyou
12		are looking for evidence of the source of
13		the wire transfers. That's the bottom
14		line. That's what you are looking for. We
15		will undertake to examine our records to
16		see if we can obtain that information
17		directly through the firm.
18		If it's available through the firm,
19		I think it will make it a lot easier, and
20		we will provide that information to you.
21		If it's not, then we will carry on with the
22		other undertakings as discussed.	J/T
23	456.	MR. SILVER: I just don't remember what
24		the specific answer to the undertaking that
25		we got before the motion was in respect of

1		the firm records in respect of wire
2		transfers. I think the answer was it is
3		not available, and that came from McKenzie
4		andso you might want to check that and
5		let us know.
6		MR. EPSTEIN: We will look into that,
7		and, as I say, if there is an easier way to
8		provide you with that information/
9		documentation, we will do so.
10	457.	MR. SILVER: Well, thank you, and thanks
11		for allowing me to speak to it.
12		MR. RANKING: No problem.
13
14	BY MR. RANKING:
15	458.	Q. If I could ask Ms. Duncan to turn up
16	Exhibit	A of her affidavit, which is a copy of the
17	client l	edger for file number 543. You might want
18	to actua	lly give that to your client. I am now
19	referrin	g to page 1. This is a document, for the 20	purposes	of the record, that is Exhibit A. It is
21	titled "	Crawford McLean Anderson & Duncan LLP Client
22	Ledger,	All Dates". But I take it the information
23	that is	set forth in this, in fact, relates to the
24	predeces	sor firm, correct?
25		A. Well, depending on the date, yes.

1		Anything from prior to January 1st, 2010yes.
2	459.	Q. Okay. And if I look at the actual
3		document, so that I understand it, on the left-hand
4		side, is that the name of the file, "Peter Allard,
5		Knox and Kingsland Estates action", or is Peter
6		Allard the client?
7		A. Peter Allard is the client. "Knox
8		and Kingsland Estates action" is the name of the
9		file.
10	460.	Q. All right. And then we see BMC 543
11		is the actual file number?
12		A. Yes. That "A*" before that, it
13		means archived because it is a closed-out file.
14	461.	Q. It means archived?
15		A. Yes.
16	462.	Q. Okay. And what is the relevance of
17		930 immediately above the moniker for the file?
18		A. 8930 is the client number.
19	463.	Q. 8930. Okay. On my copy, I don't
20		have an "8". So there should be an "8" in front of
21		it?
22		A. Yes. I do have a complete original
23		copy.
24		MR. EPSTEIN: If you want to take a look
25		at the

1	464.	MR. SILVER: Gerry, they sent a
2		separateof 'A' and 'B' with this letter
3		by courier, because some of the info was
4		cut out.
5
6	BY MR. R	ANKING:
7	465.	Q. Okay. My colleagues and friends
8		have given me one that is better, so I have got that
9		now. Thank you, Ms. Duncan. So the 8930 is the
10		client number for Peter Allard?
11		A. Yes.
12	466.	Q. And then the next column is the
13		description for what would otherwise be a docket
14		entry or an explanation of a disbursement or
15		payment?
16		A. I am sorry, so there is the "Date"
17		column, the entry number under the date, and then
18		the next column is the description, yes.
19	467.	Q. Right. And that description will
20		either be a docket, or if there is an accounting
21		entry, it will describe the nature of the accounting
22		entry?
23		A. Yes.
24	468.	Q. And then under "Cheq/Rec/" what is
25		that for? What does that reflect?

1		A. I believe that is cheque number or
2		receipt number.
3	469.	Q. Okay. And then under the next
4		heading where it says "General Receipts or
5		Disbursements", I take it that will reflect the
6		A. Cash flow.
7	470.	Qcash flow? And then the third
8		column is for fees?
9		A. Yes.
10	471.	Q. And that reflects the actual
11		docketed time, taking the number of hours times the
12		hourly rate?
13		A. Yes.
14	472.	Q. And what is the next column where it
15		says "BLD Invoice Number"?
16		A. Billed. So when a docket entry is
17		billed, it gets an entry number assigned to it on
18		the bill, butI believe that is the number of the
19		bill on which the docket entry appears, sorry.
20	473.	Q. That would be the invoice number on
21		the account?
22		A. Yes.
23	474.	Q. All right. So that if we just take,
24		by way of example, the first eleven entries with
25		31975, those would have been billed under one

1		invoice?
2		A. I believe so. As I have said, I am
3		not an accountant by any means. I believe that is
4		what that represents.
5	475.	Q. All right. And then if I go back to
6		the top of the page and come down to the next line
7		under "Peter Allard", you have indicated that the
8		asterisk means it was archived. And I take it that
9		is "A*" for archived?
10		A. Yes.
11	476.	Q. And then the archived date, is that
12		the 8th of April, or theI guess it must be the
13		8th of April?
14		A. Noyes, that is the 8ththat is
15		the date that it was retrieved.
16	477.	Q. That is the date it was retrieved.
17		A. That's the date that that was
18		printed off.
19	478.	Q. Okay. And then "Closed Number",
20		what does that refer to?
21		A. That is the closed file number.
22	479.	Q. All right. So that when you are
23		actually retrieving it from storage, that is the
24		number that you would use, as opposed to the BMC 543
25		number?

1			A.	Unfortunately, it is not that
2		simple.	That is	s the closed number in PCLaw's
3		database	-
4	480.		Q.	I see. All right.
5			A.	We have a completely different
6		system fo	or clos:	ing out files, physical files.
7	481.		Q.	But that number really has no
8		relevance	e for o	ur purposes?
9			A.	No, because the physical file was
10		never clo	osed.
11	482.		Q.	Right. Okay. Then let me take you
12		towhat	I am o	going to do is I want to go through a
13		number of	f entri	es, and I take it, from your review
14		of whether	er it is	sand this is a general question
15		that you	are con	mfortable that the docket entries on
16		this are	accura	te to the extent that you have any
17		personal	knowled	dge of the entries?
18			A.	Certainly to my knowledge, the
19		timekeepe	ers at o	our firm are accurate in what they
20		enter, ye	es.
21	483.		Q.	All right. Now, the first thing I
22		wanted to	o do is	I think we have identified two
23		other fil	les that	t may relate to the subject matter of
24		Nelson Ba	arbados	, and I would like to take you to
25		those to	see whe	ether or not our review is accurate.

                          "...Transfer BMC 543 to BMC 553..."

                 553.

DISCUSSION OFF THE RECORD

1		MR. EPSTEIN: Just so we are clear on
2		the record, and I think the court order
3		speaks to this, any matters that Mr. Allard
4		was involved with relating to this, the
5		Nelson Barbados dispute, if you could call
6		it that, I think there is protection under
7		a court order for Ms. Duncan to answer
8		those questions. But questions relating to
9		other files are ones that we are not in a
10		position to waive privilege on. If Mr.
11		Allard chooses to do that, he can, but 12
13	BY MR. RANKING:
14	488.	Q. Okay. Do I understand this to be a
15	matter t	hat relates to Mr. Allard?
16		A. I believe so.
17	489.	Q. All right. And were the political
18	matters	dealing with political matters in Barbados
19	or elsew	here?
20		MR. EPSTEIN: You know what, I don't
21		think that she can answer questions
22	490.	MR. RANKING: All right.
23		MR. EPSTEIN: Anything further than what
24		is already contained in these records, I
25		think it could be a waiver of his

1		privilege.
2	491.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
3	492.	MR. SILVER: Can we go off for a second?
7	493.	MR. RANKING: So I understand, Mr.
8		Epstein, your position is you won't permit
9		any questions with respect to the Peter
10		Allard file entitled "Political Matters",
11		bearing file number 553. I acknowledge
12		your position.
13		MR. EPSTEIN: Correct. /R
14	494.	MR. RANKING: And again, I think you are
15		going to take the same position with
16		respect to the second entry at the bottom
17		of the page, dated October 2, 2006. There
18		seems to be a second matter called "The
19		Sanctuary Matter", bearing file number BMC
20		552. Do you see that, Ms. Duncan?
21		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.
22		THE DEPONENT: Yes, I do.

3		A. Yes.
4	496.	MR. RANKING: And I take it, Mr.
5		Epstein, that, as with the other file, you
6		will not permit your client to answer any
7		questions with respect to that file?
8		MR. EPSTEIN: Correct.	/R

16	I take	it that is also a file relating to Mr. Peter
17	Allard	where Mr. Allard was your client?
18		A. Yes.
19	499.	MR. RANKING: And, similarly, I take it,
20		Mr. Epstein, that you will not permit any
21		questions with respect to that matter?
22		MR. EPSTEIN: Correct.	/R
23	500.	MR. RANKING: All right. Thank you.
24		And I am going to ask you to produce those

14	504.	Q. And before I ask you any questions
15	on th	ne entry at December 8th, I am going to ask you
16	to tu	urn as well to paragraph 20 of your affidavit.
17	In pa	aragraph 20 of your affidavit, you speak of the
18	accou	unting records for BMC 543, which are the
19	accou	unting records we are going to, correct, Ms.
20	Dunca	an?
21		A. That is correct.
22	505.	Q. And what you say at paragraph 20 is
23	that	there are numerous invoices from NIS Inc., a
24	compa	any which appears to be owned by Best, and I
25	take	it those were invoices that were paid by the

1		Crawford McKenzie firm, correct?
2		A. They were paid by the firm and
3		reimbursed by the client, yes.
4	506.	Q. Right. And if I take you now to the
5		entry at NIS, by way of background, you will see
6		beside December 8th that there was a payment to NIS
7		Inc. for research and investigation in the amount of
3		1,426.80, right?
9		A. Yes.
10	507.	Q. And there were then taxes on the
11		disbursements of some 99.87, correct?
12		A. Yes.
13	508.	Q. All right. And as you just
14		indicated, I take it that the firm paid that amount
15		and was then reimbursed by Mr. Allard when the
16		accounts were paid by him on behalf of Nelson
17		Barbados?
18		A. Yes. I think that is what that
19		series of entries on December 8th shows. I think
20		thatif you look at 490743 further down the page,
21		that shows that funds were transferred to pay an
22		invoice.
23	509.	Q. Right.
24	510.	MR. SILVER: Where is that?

20
                 to some of those accounts just to confirm that my understanding is correct. But can I just pause just 21
22 to deal with NIS Inc.? Firstly, you indicate in your affidavit at paragraph 20 that you think that 23 the company was owned by Best. We have done a 24
25 corporate search, and I am going to pass it across to you. You have a copy of it? Yes, this is a 1 2 Ministry of Government Services corporation profile report for Ontario corporation number 2049968, which 3 reflects a company for which Donald Best is the administrator, and the address of the office is at 5 3044 Bloor Street West. 6 7 MR. EPSTEIN: Right. We have that. THE DEPONENT: Is this an exhibit? 8 9 10 BY MR. RANKING: 11 520. We have not yet marked it because I Q. 12 was going to first take you to Exhibit G of your 13 affidavit, and take your attention to the invoices 14 that you were referencing there. And the first invoice is dated October 24, 2005, and you will see 15 that the address for NIS Inc. on the footer is the 16 same as that in the corporation profile report. Do 17 18 you see that? 19 Yes, I do. Α. 521. And I take it that, for the purposes 20 Ο. 21 of your cross-examination, we can agree that this is 22 the corporation profile report for the corporation that was providing services to Crawford McKenzie? 23 I would agree that that appears to 24 be the case, yes.

1	522.	MR. RANKING: Thank you. If we can mark
2		that as the next exhibit. The corporation
3		profile report for NIS Inc. will be
4		Exhibit number 7.

6	EXHIBIT NO.	7 : Corporation profile report for

9	BY MR. RANKING:
10	523.	Q. Okay. Now, while we are here, can I
11	just ask	youI have taken you to a couple of
12	docket e	ntries, and there seem to be many, and just
13	to assua	ge any concerns you have got, I am going to
14	take you	to a few sample entries and
15		A. Are we back to Exhibit A?
16	524.	Q. We are back to Exhibit A, but don't
17	close Ex	hibit G. Was there a separate retainer
18	between	Crawford McKenzie and NIS Inc. for the work
19	it was c	onducting? I mean, we see there are
20	invoices	virtually on a monthly basis rendered by
21	NIS Inc.	to Crawford McKenzie. Was there a letter
22	of engag	ement or a retainer letter or a letter of
23	instruct	ion whereby Crawford McKenzie said to the
24	principa	l of NIS, Donald Best, "This is the work we
25	want you	to do"?

1		A. I am not aware of anything in the
2	file.	I have not examined the file for that type of
3	materi	al.
4	525.	Q. Would you do so, so we have some
5	indica	tion of what the work was that NIS was doing?
6		MR. EPSTEIN: We will look to see if
7		there is a retainer agreement between
8		Crawford and NIS.	U/T
9	526.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
10		THE DEPONENT: In the file that we have.
11		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.
12
13	BY MR. RANKING:
14	527.	Q. And do we know the nature of the
15	work?	I mean, other than theand I can read the
16	descri	otion as well as you can, Ms. Duncan. But I
17	guess	what I would likeand there
18		A. I am shaking my head no.
19	528.	Q. Right. I am sure you don't want to
20	know,	out what I am interested in finding out, and I
21	will p	ut this on the recordand there are going to
22	be a f	ew other very interesting entries that Ms.
23	Duncan	has taken us to. I would be interested to
24	know i	f there is a retainer, or agreement, or a
25	letter	of instruction. You have kindly undertaken

1		to do that.
2		I would also like to know if there is a
3		correspondence file which would have correspondence
4		and e-mails and other communications, and an
5		understanding
6		MR. EPSTEIN: So, specifically, you are
7		asking for a correspondence file with
8	529.	MR. RANKING: Between NIS Inc. and
9		Crawford McKenzie.
10		MR. EPSTEIN: Can you answer that
11		question?
12		THE DEPONENT: We did look for some
13		communication. We did not find any. In
14		the course of my inquiries in that
15		direction, Ms. Ball advised me that, for
16		some period of time, Mr. Best was
17		communicating with the firm using a code
18		name. We have not done a thorough
19		investigation as to whether we can find the
20		code name anywhere in the files because
21		this was something that Ms. Ball kind of
22		remembered as I was forcing her to go
23		through boxes and boxes of dusty material.
24		So, in order to be completely
25		accurate in any undertaking, I would have

1		to ask Ms. Ball to look for both
2		communications involving NIS and
3		communications involving Nathan.
5	BY MR. F	RANKING:
6	530.	Q. Was Nathan the code name?
7		A. That is what I have been advised by
8		Ms. Ball.
9	531.	Q. All right. I am going to come back
10		to that. Was "Nathan" Mr. Best?
11		A. That is what I was told, yes.
12	532.	Q. All right. Thank you. So, with
13		that very helpful clarification, Ms. Duncan, could I
14		then ask for you to determine if there is any
15		correspondence or e-mails from Nathan to the firm,
16		and if so, to produce those communications? That is
17		number 1.
19
20	BY MR. F	RANKING:
21	533.	Q. And secondly, and in addition, if
22		there is information or documents or reports which
23		reflect the results of the work that Mr. Best was
24		doing on behalf of NIS that the firm was paying, if
25		we could get production of the results of his work?

1		A. We were unable to locate any reports
2		from NIS, but we willI mean, if my counsel
3		advises, we will take another look.
6	BY MR. R	RANKING:
7	534.	Q. The payments go up and down, but I
8		think it would be, you know, remissand Mr. Silver
9		and I conferred and we think we should put the
10		question to you. We would like to know whether
11		there was any legitimate work that was being
12		performed by Mr. Best, or whether these were
13		payments that were being made to Mr. Best through
14		NIS Inc. really to compensate him for being a
15		nominal director of Nelson Barbados.
16		MR. EPSTEIN: I think the question she
17		can answer is a question you have asked
18		already: What work, if any, was Mr. Best
19		doing for the firm, or Nathan? Whether it
20		was legitimate or not, that is going to be
21		for others to make a determination, but I
22		don't think that isit is not fair to ask
23		her if she
24	535.	MR. RANKING: I am not asking
25		THE DEPONENT: I do have one comment on

1		that.
2
3	BY MR. R	ANKING:
4	536.	Q. Yes?
5		A. I mean, I have very limited
6		knowledge, but I am aware that Mr. Best was doing
7		something. I mean, that isand I just say that
3		because when he did show up for a security-related
9		meeting, he and Mr. McKenzie were conferring about
10		other work he was doing. So, while I can't answer
11		your question as phrased, I can advise that I am
12		aware that Mr. Best was performing some services. I
13		don't know the details.
14	537.	Q. All right. Well, that is very
15		helpful. And if you obtain any evidence one way or
16		the other as to the services he was performing or
17		not performing, if you would let us know?
18		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.	U/T
19	538.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
20	539.	MR. SILVER: Sorry, butbecause I
21		don't want to come back to it. So you
22		don't have any knowledge that Best was paid
23		to be a director of Nelson Barbados?
24		THE DEPONENT: No. There is nothing in the files that has that indication.

540.
                          MR. SILVER: So you don't have any knowledge and you don't have any information or belief either?

                          THE DEPONENT:

                          Q. So, if I go back then, and I just wanted you to keep up Exhibit G, the first invoice 9
                 that we have identified, and this is the same 10 invoice that I was actually examining on at the entry of December 8th?

                          Α.

                          Q.
                                 And I am going to try to take you 15 through the process so that everything works. We 16
                 see an invoice dated October 24th, 2005 at Exhibit G in the amount of 1,426.80, and there is then GST
                 added to that in the amount of 99.87, for a total of

                               Yes.

                                 If you go back to page 9 of
                          Q.
22
                 Exhibit A, you will see those same two entries?
                                 Maybe flipping back and forth, I
23 24 might refer to my copy?
25
        545.
                          Q.
                               That is fine.

1			A.	On page 9?
2	546.		Q.	Yes.
3			Α.	Yes.
4	547.		Q.	And then the total amount of
5		1,526.67	, if I	go back to Exhibit G, was then
6		processe	d by Cr	awford McKenzie and paid by Crawford
7		McKenzie	on its	general account, correct?
8			Α.	Yes.
9	548.		Q.	And a cheque was mailed on December
10		9th, 200	5, which	h is consistent with the entries on
11		page 8 h	aving b	een processed on December 8th?
12			Α.	I don't know if it was mailed. I
13		can tell	you th	at there is a handwritten notation on
14		the invo	ice wit	h Sunny Ware's initial on it that
15		indicate	s that.
16	549.		Q.	Okay. Thank you.
17	550.		MR. SI	LVER: And then can I just
18			sorry,	Gerry, but I just want to get this

25			which	is the $40,000 account?

	THE DEPONENT: Yes.
551.	MR. SILVER: And then if you go to tab

	the first one, just to close the loop on this.
552.	MR. RANKING: I will be doing that one next.
553.	MR. SILVER: All right.
	THE DEPONENT: Yes.
554.	MR. SILVER: And then if you go to page
	6 of that account, you actually see the 40,254 amount, right? And then in the last of the disbursements, the paid agency account to NIS for 1,426 is there?
	THE DEPONENT: Yes.
555.	MR. SILVER: So it really closes the loop. It is paid by the firm, and then billed and repaid by the client as payment of this invoice number 31975?
	THE DEPONENT: Yes. I think that every firm in the province would do the same.
556.	MR. RANKING: And what account was that?
557.	MR. SILVER: That is the first one in

                         Q. So there was a transfer:

                          "...BMC 568 to BMC 543. Transfer U.S. funds deposited to BMC 568 in error..." 12
13
                 Do you see that?
14
                         Α.
                                Yes.
15
        581.
                                And this is only one of a number of 16 transfers, and I use this simply as an example. But
                 I take it that we are in agreement that these 17 transfers or these sorts of transfers as between the 18 19 various Peter Allard files occurred as a matter of 20 custom if the firm had inadvertently applied a 21 payment to a wrong account?
22
                                I believe so. I don't have independent knowledge of that. That is my 23
24 understanding based on the e-mails, for example.
25
                 That is all I know.

1	582.	Q. All right. And the client wouldn't
2		have any objection to that because the client was
3		ultimately funding the various files, and one would
4		want to make sure that they were allocated
5		appropriately within the files of Crawford McKenzie,
6		correct?
7		A. I believe so.
3	583.	Q. Okay. Thank you. Now, if I could
9		ask you to go back to your affidavitjust before I
10		leave NIS Inc., and looking at the invoice that you
11		had before youthis is the invoice of October 24,
12		and other invoicesdid you ever attend the office
13		of NIS Inc. at Suite 116, 3044 Bloor Street West?
14		A. No.
15	584.	Q. And do you know if Mr. Best had any
16		other associates, employees or agents acting on his
17		behalf?
18		A. During the satellite files, Mr. Best
19		would occasionally have his son assist him. His sor
20		is very skilled with video equipment.
21	585.	Q. And what is his name?
22		A. I believe it is David.
23	586.	Q. And other than David, would there be
24		anybody else assisting Mr. Best?

A. Not that I know of.

                 Wanphen Panna. Do you see that?
                                Yes, I do.
                          Α.
        589.
                                 And you indicate in paragraph 19

11 that there were certain disbursements that were made to that individual, correct?

                                 Right. And what I am going to ask 15 you to now do, with that by way of background, is to 16 take you to what I believe is one such disbursement on page 25, May 17, 2006. It is about a third of 17 the way up from the bottom of the page, the first of 18 19
                 the May 17 entries.

21
        591.
                                 And it states:

                 I take it that is one such payment that you were referring to when you were drafting paragraph 20?

                         Α.

                         paragraph 19?
       594.
                         MR. RANKING: I am sorry, paragraph 19.

5		Α.	That I know of, 2008. If I recall

7	612.	Q. Do you know, did Wanphen Panna issue

23		A. Not that we located in the file.

4		could just ask your counsel to put that before you.
5		Is that the same e-mail, Ms. Duncan?
6		A. Well, those two addresses are for
7		Sunny Ware and Bill McKenzie. They are also
8		addresses for Don Best and his wife.
9	623.	Q. All right. And which is the address
10		for Don Best?
11		A. genxdad@hushmail.
12	624.	Q. And is that the e-mail from

14	625.	MR. SILVER: Yes, it is.
15	626.	MR. RANKING: Both of them?
16		THE DEPONENT: There it is. It is at
17		the top. That's who printed out this
18		e-mail.
19	627.	MR. SILVER: This is printed off of
20		Donald Best's computer.
21		THE DEPONENT: Yes.
22	628.	MR. SILVER: Do you see that, Gerry?

25 BY MR. RANKING:

5	631.	Q. I see. All right. And the e-mail,
6		genxdad@hushmail.com, I take it is both the e-mail

8		A. No, that is Donald Best.
9	632.	Q. And which is the e-mail for Wanphen
10		Panna?
11		A. Hers does not appear on this e-mail.
12	633.	Q. I see. But she has a different

11	BY MR. RANKING:
12	640.	Q. I was going to ask you, what is a

15	Hushmai	l is a web service that provides e-mail that
16	is desi	gned to be secure, and designed to benot
17	leave a	lot of traces. It's designed to be covert.
18	It's ve	ry much security oriented.
19	641.	Q. Thank you. Does Bill McKenzie have
20	a Hushm	ail account?
21		A. That is Mr. McKenzie's Hushmail
22	account	at the top of the e-mail
23	642.	Q. I see, lawyerbil@hushmail.com?
24		A. That is correct, lawyerbil, with one

14		Ms. Panna?
15		MR. EPSTEIN: You want the wire transfer

21		not just this one, any and all payments.
22	648.	MR. RANKING: It was broad.
23		MR. EPSTEIN: Again, I assume if there

649. MR. SILVER: Well, why don't we reserve 1 2 our rights in that regard until we know what it is going to cost. And again, Ian, 3 there might be firm documents that provide 4 5 us with the same information, which saves the cost. 6 7 BY MR. RANKING: 8 9 650. The problem is Ms. Ware only 15 initialled the one, so I don't know how the others 16 were paid, and I haven't gone back to double-check. 17 But if they were paid by wire transfer, could we ask 18 for an undertaking? 1		MR. EPSTEIN:	So you want us to find the
2		NIS payments that	were made by the firm?
3	652.	MR. RANKING:	Yes, and if made by
4		wire
5		MR. EPSTEIN:	The wire transfers?
6	653.	MR. RANKING:	If made by wire transfer,
7		production of the	e wire transfer documents.
8		I am happy that y	you take it under
9		advisement right	now because it may be an
10		academic undertal	king.
11		MR. EPSTEIN:	Yes. I will take it under
12		advisement. Also	o, I don't know the scope
13		of what would be	involved in this.
14	654.	MR. RANKING:	That is fine. Just before
15		Ioff the recor	cd.
16
17	DISCUSSIO	ON OFF THE RECORD
18
19	655.	MR. RANKING:	While we were off the
20		record, we discus	ssed the issue with respect
21		to any wire trans	sfer particulars by which
22		the Crawford McKe	enzie firm may have paid
23		Mr. Best and/or N	NIS Inc. with respect to
24		the NIS Inc. invo	pices. We would still like
25		an undertaking to	produce those wire

1		transfers if, in fact, there were wire
2		transfers.
3		But, in addition, Mr. Epstein, in an
4		effort to try to facilitate matters for us,
5		has also volunteered to produce whatever
6		correspondence may exist to Mr. Best, and
7		we would also like to take Mr. Epstein up
8		on that offer. And to the extent that Ms.
9		Duncan or Ms. Ball can locate any
10		correspondence, if we could have those
11		letters produced as well?
12		MR. EPSTEIN: We will undertake to have
13		a look for those letters. If we are able
14		to find them, we will produce them to you.	U/T
15	656.	MR. RANKING: Okay.
16		MR. EPSTEIN: With regard to your
17		previous request regarding the wire
18		transfers, we will take that under
19		advisement.	U/A
20	657.	MR. RANKING: Thank you. Mr. Silver
21		reminds me that I didn't ask for letters
22		with respect to Wanphen Panna. If I could
23		ask that the undertaking be extended
24		accordingly?
25		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.	U/T

1	658.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
2
3	BY MR. RANKI	NG:
4	659.	Q. What I didn't ask was thatI think
5	that	I had asked with respect to Wanphen Panna about
6	any	correspondence or e-mails, and I think that we
7	deal	It with that. But, in addition, is there a file
8	that	deals with any of the results of her work, her
9	worl	product, or reports, or anything of that
10	natı	ire?
11		A. Not that we could locate.
12	660.	Q. All right. Now, I think that deals
13	with	n the entry that I was just taking you to. If I
14	coul	ld also ask you to move from page 25 to a second
15	enti	ry. This is at page 28.
16		MR. EPSTEIN: This is Exhibit A?
17	661.	MR. RANKING: Yes.
18
19	BY MR. RANKI	IG:
20	662.	Q. And the second entry appears to be
21	on t	the 2nd of June, it indicates:
22		"RET - Pay account of Wanphen Panna in
23		the amount of $3,150"
24		A. Yes.
25	663.	Q. Now, first of all, what does "RET"

                mean?
2
                         A. I am sorry, where does the "RET"
                appear?
                         MR. BRISTOW: You said 2nd June. I think it is 1st June.

                         Q. Just before the actual description:
                         "...Pay account of Wanphen Panna..."
9
                         A. I think...
10
11
       665.
                         Q. And I think Mr. Bristow has corrected me. I am looking at June 1.

14
15
                         THE DEPONENT: Okay. I believe that is 16
                         a correcting entry. If I look at the 17 previous page...because it...like, the same 18 thing appears again June 2nd.

                            I was going to drop down there after
                         Q.
22 taking you to that one, because you are right, it does appear again. On June 2nd beside the entry 23
                509090, there is the entry:
24
25
                         "...Wanphen Panna, Thailand, money wired to

1		cover Internet research account"
2		A. I do not know what the significance
3		of that is. I would have to ask the accountant.
4	667.	Q. Do I understand this entry to be
5		that, on the 1st of June, the firm received $3,150,
6		and on the 2nd of June, those monies were then wired
7		as a disbursement to pay that account?
8		A. That could be. I don't know.
9	668.	Q. There is an asterisk beside the
10		words "research account". Do you know what the
11		significance of the asterisk is?
12		A. No. It may have just been a typo.
13		It may not be. I don't know.
14	669.	Q. I don't think it is, and the
15		asterisk is quite interesting where it is actually
16		placed on some of the entries that we are going to
17		go to. Who, within your firm, would have knowledge
18		of how an asterisk might come to be placed beside a
19		particular docket description or disbursement
20		description?
21		A. Well, these docket entries appear to
22		have been made by either the bookkeeper or Sunny
23		Ware.
24	670.	Q. Would you make inquiries of Sunny
25		Ware to see if she knows?

1		MR. EPSTEIN: To see if she knows what
2		the asterisk meant?
3	671.	MR. RANKING: Yes, what it signifies.
4		MR. EPSTEIN: Okay.	U/T
6	BY MR. R	RANKING:
7	672.	Q. If you go back to the entry at page
8		25, just in the interest of full disclosure, you
9		will see that, just as with the entry on the 2nd of
10		June, so too the entry on the 17th of May has an
11		asterisk as well.
12		A. Well, there is also an asterisk
13		beside:
14		"Paying airfare for Bill McKenzie from
15		Toronto to Barbados"
16		on the 17th of May as well, so
17	673.	Q. You are absolutely right. All
18		right. And then with respect to the June 2nd
19		payment, I take it that that will be covered again
20		with your earlier undertaking concerning the
21		documentation for the wire transfer?
22		A. Yes, I believe it would be.
23	674.	Q. Thank you. Now, we have prepared an
24		exhibit, a copy of which I am handing across to you, which are payments made to Wanphen Panna for the

1	file number 543. You don't need to review it now.
2	I believe it to be accurate. But if I could ask you
3	to advise in due course if you agree with the
4	accuracy of this exhibit, and that, in fact, over
5	the currency of file BMC 543, Ms. Wanphen Panna was
6	paid $175,768?
7	A. That is veryto the best of my
8	recollection, that is very close to the figure that
9	I came up with when I tried to do the same thing.
10	675. MR. RANKING: Okay. Thank you. If we
11	could mark this summary titled "Payments
12	Made to Wanphen Panna, File Number BMC
13	543", as the next exhibit. That would be
14	Exhibit number 8.
15
16	EXHIBIT NO. 8 : Summary titled "Payments Made to
17	Wanphen Panna, File Number BMC 543"
18
19	BY MR. RANKING:
20	O. Now, while I appreciate that you
21	don't have, or you haven't been able to locate a
22	file, do you have any knowledge, information or
23	belief as to the work that Ms. Panna was doing with
24	respect to Internet research?
25	A. I have no information. All I can

1		tell you is the invoices in our file simply say
2		"Internet research". There is no detail whatsoever.
3	677.	Q. And would you undertake to make
4		inquiries of Stacey Ball to determine if she might
5		assist?
6		A. Ms. Ball had no knowledge. Ms. Ware
7		handled that exclusively, and Ms. Ball never knew
3		anything about it.
9	678.	Q. And did you make the inquiry of Ms.
10		Ware as to what she thought was going on with
11		respect to this Internet research?
12		A. No, I have not.
13	679.	Q. Would you make the inquiry? What I
14		would like to know is the
15		A. I am looking to my counsel on that
16		one.
17		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.
18		THE DEPONENT: Yes.
19
20	BY MR. R	ANKING:
21	680.	Q. To the extent that she can assist, I
22		would like to know what her information is with
23		respect to the nature of the work that Ms. Panna was
24		doing, where she was performing the work, to whom
25		sho was reporting and what information she was

1		providin	a.
2			MR. EPSTEIN:	I am trying to write that
3			down. You were	saying it way too quickly.
4			You wanted us to	find out the information
5			on the work that	Panna did?
6	681.		MR. RANKING:	Yes.
7			MR. EPSTEIN:	What was the next thing?
8	682.		MR. RANKING:	Where she did the work.
9			MR. EPSTEIN:	Yes.	U/T
10	683.		MR. RANKING:	To whom she was reporting,
11			and the substanc	e of the reports that she
12			was providing.
13			MR. EPSTEIN:	Yes. I think Ms. Duncan
14			indicated that,	to the best of their
15			knowledge, there	were no reports.	U/T
16	684.		MR. RANKING:	Right. Or certainly none
17			that found their	way into the files of
18			Crawford McKenzi	e.
19			MR. EPSTEIN:	That is right.
20	685.		MR. RANKING:	But there may well have
21			been reports.
22			MR. EPSTEIN:	There may well have been
23			reports, but she	doesn't have any reports.
24

25 BY MR. RANKING:

1	686.	Q. And I would also be interested if
2		you could make inquiries of Ms. Ware to determine
3		her knowledge, information or belief as to the
4		extent to which Mr. McKenzie was involved in the
5		Keltruth blog, and having either Mr. Best as a
6		representative of NIS, or Ms. Panna reviewing the
7		Keltruth blog, or posting material to the Keltruth
8		blog.
9		A. Could you repeat that last bit,
10		please?
11	687.	Q. The extent to which Mr. McKenzie was
12		involved, either directly or indirectly, in posting
13		information to the Keltruth blog. And I would also
14		be interested to know whether that extended to
15		Barbados Underground, or, in fact, to any other
16		blog, details of which we don't know.
17		A. Can I speak to my counsel for a
18		moment?
19	688.	Q. Yes.
20		MR. EPSTEIN: There is some additional
21		information that Ms. Duncan will assist you
22		with regarding blogs.
23	689.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
24		THE DEPONENT: Just in reference to that
25		undertaking, I wasin going through the

1		files, we found information suggesting that
2		they were investigating who was posting.
3		They had somebody monitoring who was
4		posting to these blogs, and trying to trace
5		ISPs, trying to trace identities of who was
6		posting to the blogs, and from where.
8	BY MR. RA	ANKING:
9	690.	Q. And were you able to determine if
10		they came to any conclusion as to who was posting to
11		those blogs?
12		A. Well, actually I think some of it
13		was produced. I think that some of that information
14		was actually produced in the record that has been
15		filed in this proceeding.
16	691.	Q. I think it may have been a letter
17		from Mr. McKenzie to Mr. Roman suggesting that Mr.
18		Roman was posting on the blogs, but I could perhaps
19		be wrong. Or somebody from the Miller Thomson firm,
20		I certainly saw that.
21		A. Yes. I think that was a suggestion
22		made, but I believe there was actually an expert
23		report that was produced. That is
24	692.	MS. ZEMEL: Could I just pick up on
25		this? Are you referring now to the expert

1		report that your firm filed with respect to
2		the Justice Brown action? Because there
3		was something filed, but if that is the
4		only thing you are referring to
5		THE DEPONENT: There was a record filed
6		that I think contained information about
7		tracing where things were posted.
8	693.	MS. ZEMEL: Okay. But besides that, is
9		there anything else?
10		THE DEPONENT: That, I don't know.
11	694.	MR. RANKING: And I appreciatebecause
12		I haven't been following the blogs, but do
13		I have the undertaking, Mr. Epstein? Your
14		counsel sought your ear to which I didn't
15		object. But I had asked for an
16		undertaking. I am not sure that I got it.
17		MR. EPSTEIN: The undertaking to make an
18		inquiry of Ms. Ware about
19	695.	MR. RANKING: Yes.
20		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes, we will make that
21		inquiry.	U/T
22	696.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
23	697.	MS. ZEMEL: I am sorry, I just want to
24		add to that. I know Mr. Ranking referred
25		to the various blogs, and he mentioned

1		Barbados Underground. Could you also make
2		that for Barbados Free Press as well?
3	698.	MR. RANKING: Yes.
4
5	BY MR. RANKING:
6	699.	Q. Just while we are here, one of the
7	question	s I asked of Mr. McKenzie, for which I
8	received	an answer that I was somewhat surprised to
9	receive,	was that he indicated that his cell phone
10	provider	did not provide details of telephone
11	numbers.	Do you recall that answer?
12		A. Yes.
13	700.	Q. Did you have the same degree of
14	suspicio	n when you saw the answer that I did?
15		A. Well, his answer was substantively
16	accurate	in that it did not show incoming calls. It
17	did show	outgoing calls.
18	701.	Q. Did Mr. McKenzie seek reimbursement
19	from the	firm with respect to his cell phone?
20		A. Until August of 2008, yes.
21	702.	Q. And would you produce to us for the
22	period s	tarting with the entries to account 543 from
23	Septembe	r of 2005 through to August of 2008, with
24	copies o	f Mr. McKenzie's cell phone bills?
25		MR. EPSTEIN: Do you have them?

1		THE DEPONENT: We have them, but I have
2		a concern, and that concern is that he was
3		dealing with more than one file, and there
4		may be privileged material in those phone
5		records that does not relate to this file
6		in any way, shape or form. Unfortunately,
7		the only way I can find that out is to
8		inquire of Mr. McKenzie, and that is not a
9		big conduit of information for me at the
10		moment.
11	703.	MR. RANKING: Well, perhaps we could do
12		this: I am going to make the request; if
13		you could take it under advisement, we may
14		be able to fashion a way in whichthrough
15		the good graces of Mr. Kramer and his
16		office, we may be able to
17		MR. EPSTEIN: I think that would be a
18		better way to do it. Why don't you ask Mr.
19		McKenzie if he will provide that
20		information to you. And then if you have
21		difficulty in that regard, then we will
22		consider our position.
23		THE DEPONENT: I can advise, we do have
24		the records from September or October of
25		2005, up to September of 2008.

1	704.	MR. RANKING: So I think the way in
2		which I would like the undertaking to be
3		fashionedand you are, of course, free to
4		take it under advisement. But I would
5		like, recognizing what I consider to be the
6		legitimate concerns expressed by Ms. Duncan
7		with respect to not only privileged, but
8		possible other privacy issues concerning
9		calls by Mr. McKenzie, I think the
10		undertaking that I would seek is that
11		Crawford McKenzie produce to Mr. Kramer, or
12		whatever successor counsel Mr. McKenzie may
13		retain, the
14		MR. EPSTEIN: No, no, he is in here
15		until the end.
16	705.	MR. RANKING:the phone records of
17		Mr. McKenzie for his cell phone for the
18		period from September 2005 through to
19		August of 2008. And I will then ask Mr.
20		McKenzie through his counsel to review and
21		to produce copies of the cell phone records
22		relating to any individuals having anything
23		to do with this particular case.
24		MR. EPSTEIN: All right. Yes. So we
25		will give you that undertaking to provide those records to Mr. Kramer, and then you 1 2 can follow up with Mr. Kramer and Mr. McKenzie whatever questions you have 3 regarding those records. U/T 706. MR. RANKING: Thank you. 5 6 BY MR. RANKING: 7 707. And with respect to Wanphen Panna, I 8 Q. 9 take it that the same applies as applied...and I ask if these accounts were addressed to Crawford 10 11 McKenzie, and that they were processed by Crawford 12 McKenzie, and paid by the firm, and the 13 disbursements were then added to accounts that were 14 rendered to Nelson Barbados, or Mr. Allard, and then 15 paid by Mr. Allard? 16 Α. I believe so. 708. Thank you. All right. If I could 17 Ο. ask you to turn to page 32, the entry on 14 July, 18 19 2006 at 514307 to Wanphen Panna. And again, this is a payment for consulting services in the amount of 20 21 $26,478.64. Do you have any knowledge, information 22 or belief as to why Ms. Panna was rendering an account for such an amount in mid-July 2006? 23 No. No, I don't. 24 Α.

All right. And I take it your

709.

Q.

1		partners would	have no such information?
2		Α.	No.
3	710.	Q.	Okay. And again, I am not sure that
4		anything turns	on this, but you will see that that
5		entry also has	an asterisk.
6		Α.	Yes.
7	711.	Q.	And if we go up to the account
8		rendered by Jen	ny McKenzie that I am going to take
9		you to next, th	at similarly has an asterisk?
10		Α.	Yes.
11	712.	Q.	Again, nothing turns on it, but I
12		just share with	youwell, I find it to be somewhat
13		surprising, I h	ave no idea why Mr. McKenzie's
14		airfare has an	asterisk, but anyway. I am taking
15		you now to 14 J	uly with "Jenny McKenzie". I take it
16		that Jenny McKe	nzie is one of Mr. McKenzie's
17		daughters?
18		Α.	That is correct.
19	713.	Q.	And how many children does Mr.
20		McKenzie have?
21		Α.	In total, he has four.
22	714.	Q.	Okay. And I know of Krista.
23		Α.	Yes.
24	715.	Q.	I take it Krista is no longer
25		working at your	firm?

1		Α.	No.
2	716.	Q.	And who were the other two? I am
3		sure I will f	ind them somewhere in the dockets.
4		Α.	Actually, no, you won't. Jenny and
5		Krista are bo	th adults. They are from his first
6		marriage. Sa	rah and Lindsay are minors of his
7		second marria	ge to Ms. James.
8	717.	Q.	Okay. And is Jenny the younger of
9		the two?
10		Α.	I believe she is.
11	718.	Q.	So we see at tab 8, page 32 that
12		Jenny McKenzi	e was being paid for services that seem
13		to have been	provided through JEM Consulting Agency.
14		Firstly, do y	ou know of JEM Consulting Agency, and
15		what that par	ticular, it would seem, sole
16		proprietorshi	p does?
17		Α.	No.
18	719.	Q.	All right. And do you have any
19		knowledge, in	formation or belief as to why it is
20		that Mr. McKe	nzie was paying his daughter in the
21		middle of 200	6 some $2,500?
22		Α.	No.
23	720.	Q.	Not meaning to tread on sensitive
24		ground, but w	ould this type of entry be one of the
25		areas of conc	ern that you and your partners had with

Τ		Mr. McKenzie?
2		A. Potentially, yes.
3	721.	Q. Okay. And I take it that you are
4		not aware of any particular service that Jenny
5		McKenzie was providing to the file for which this
6		docket entry was made in July of 2006?
7		A. I have to say that that is not
8		whatthere were various times Mr. McKenzie
9		referred to Jenny doing some kind of assessment for
10		another matter unrelated to Kingsland Estates for
11		Mr. Allard. And I am cautious in how I answer that
12		because there may be solicitor/client privilege
13		issues.
14	722.	Q. Okay. Well, I don't want you to
15		trench on that. Having seen JEM Consulting, it
16		won't come as any surprise that we did a sole
17		proprietor search, and this may mean nothing to you
18		but I note that Joan Elaine Miller is shown as the
19		sole proprietor of this entity or sole
20		proprietorship. Do you know of a Joan Elaine
21		Miller?
22		A. No.
23	723.	Q. Are you familiar with 30 Harrison
24		Garden Boulevard? Is that an address that you knew
25		of?

1		A. No.
2	724.	Q. And do you know the mailing or
3	resident	ial address of Jennifer McKenzie?
4		A. I do not.
5	725.	MR. RANKING: I am not going to mark
6		this as an exhibit, Mr. Epstein, although
7		you are free to keep it if you want.
8		MR. EPSTEIN: Why don't we just mark it
9		as 'A' for identification, just so that we
10		know what has been referred to?
11	726.	MR. RANKING: I can mark it as an
12		exhibit if you want. I just didn't
13		think

5		your review of the files, of any file that Crawford
6		McKenzie had with respect to the work that was being
7		performed by Jennifer McKenzie?
8		A. That may be. There may be a file,
9		but again, I am hesitant to give any more detail
10		than that for solicitor/client privilege reasons.
11	729.	Q. And I am certainly content that the
12		matter be taken under advisement. But if you can
13		review it for the purposes of privilege and redact
14		it as appropriate, I am only interested in any of
15		the work that Ms. McKenzie did relative to Nelson

23		"And payments made to Paul
24		DeVilliers"
25		A. Yes.

1	736.	Q. Who is Mr. DeVilliers?
2		A. He is the former member of
3		parliament in our riding. He was retained as a
4		consultant.
5	737.	Q. Okay. And what was the nature of
6		the consulting? And if you want to take the
7		protection of the Canada Evidence Act , I kind of
8		understand.
9		A. I don't know.
10	738.	Q. Good answer.
11		A. No, I really don't know.
12	739.	Q. If I could ask you to turn to page
13		53, and at the bottom of the pagethis is at
14		Exhibit A, entry 28, 2007. It's the second-last
15		entry on the page and it indicates:
16		"Peter Allard, U.S. funds, retainer for
17		Miami lawyers, Broad & Cassel trust
18		account"
19		Going over to page 54:
20		"Retainer by wire transfer, Wanphen
21		Panna"
22		A. Well, I think Wanphen Panna is a
23		separate entry.
24	740.	Q. I agree. Now, let's just deal with
25		the entry at the bottom of page 53. We have seen

1		reference to the Broad & Cassel firm, and I don't
2		know if you are familiar with them, but they were
3		the firm that wrote to me by letter dated February
4		18, 2010. And they were the firm that, as of ō		February 2010, were acting in connection with the
6		Marjorie Ilma Knox revocable trust. This is a
7		letter that was written to me by Michael Dribin, and
3		it attached various other documents including the
9		revocable trust for which Cathleen Davis is the
10		trustee.
11		A. Yes. I recognize this letter from
12		the court date.
13	741.	MR. RANKING: If we could mark my letter
14		of February 18th as the next exhibit. That
15		will be Exhibit number 9. That is a letter
16		dated February 18th, 2010, from Michael A.
17		Dribin to myself, Mr. Ranking, with various
18		attachments relating to the revocable Ilma
19		Knox trust. That will be Exhibit number 9.
20
21		EXHIBIT NO. 9: Letter from Michael A. Dribin to
22		Gerald Ranking, dated February 18,
23		2010, with attachments relating to
2.4		the revocable Ilma Knox trust

1	BY MR. R	ANKING:
2	742.	Q. So with that by way of background,
3		do I understand and is it your understanding that
4		Peter Allard actually put Crawford McKenzie in funds
5		to retain the Broad & Cassel firm on or about
6		February 28, 2007?
7		A. I don't know if these two are
8		connected. I mean, I don't know what the connection
9		might be between their representation of the Knox
10		family and anything they might have done for Mr.
11		Allard.
12	743.	Q. All right. That is fair enough.
13		And I think what Mr. Dribin may have been doing when
14		he was writing to me this past February may well
15		have been different to what he was doing in February
16		of 2007. But certainly, I take it we can agree it
17		is the same firm?
18		A. I believe it's the same firm, but
19		Ithere is not enough on this ledger entry for me
20		to identify and address or anything elseI can't
21		say anything more than what is in the ledger.
22	744.	Q. All right. I will take you to
23		another entry where Mr. Dribin is actually referred
24		to. But what I would like to understand is, as I
25		read this entry, there was a wire transfer of

$15,000 on February 28th, 2007, less a $10 wire
                transfer fee...excuse me, $12,490, less a $10 wire transfer fee that was given to the Crawford McKenzie firm for your firm to retain Broad & Cassel.
                         A. That is what that ledger seems to say, yes.
       745.
                         Q. All right.
                         MR. SILVER: Sorry, $12,500 less a $10

                        MR. RANKING: That is correct. And the entry of $12,490.

                              We paid a retainer to them. I don't

1		by Mr. Allard to your firm, and your firm, in turn,
2		sent them to Broad & Cassel for the initial
3		retainer?
4		A. That is correct.
5	752.	Q. Okay. Thank you. Do you know what
6		the purpose of the retainer was in February of 2007?
7		A. No.
8	753.	Q. And would Mr. McKenzie be the only
9		individual who could assist in that regard?
10		A. Mr. McKenzie probably is the one
11		with the most direct knowledge. His assistant, Ms.
12		Ware, probably has some knowledge. She may not have
13		independent knowledge. I have not examined the file
14		to see if we have anything in the file.
15	754.	Q. All right. If I could ask you to
16		turn backthis may assist your recollection, and I
17		don't pretend to have a photographic memory of all
18		the entries, but on page 49 at January 31, 2007,
19		about a third of the way up beside the entry 537772,
20		there is a five-and-a-half-hour meeting between Mr.
21		McKenzie, who I understand to be lawyer for, and the
22		entry indicates:
23		"Meet and brief with Mike Dribin, and
24		later with Jane and Cathy. Call with Peter
25		Allard, recap and research"

1		A. Yes, I see that entry.
2	755.	Q. And I take it from thatand if you
3		have a different understanding, you can let me
4		knowthat that was a meeting to interview Mr.
5		Dribin with subsequent discussions with Jane Goddard
6		and Cathleen Davis on a call with Peter Allard to
7		determine whether or not they would, in fact, retain
8		the Broad & Cassel firm. And it seems that
9		A. I can't go that far. I am sorry,
10		but this entry just talks about "meeting with Mike
11		Dribin, and later with". That is all I canthat
12		is my only source of knowledge. I have no
13		independent knowledge of what might be connected
14		there.
15	756.	Q. Right. But I guess my simple point
16		is, and I am just a lawyer, but it would seem to me
17		that this is the meeting that ultimately resulted in
18		the retainer, upon which I was examining you, as of
19		February 28th, 2007.
20		MR. EPSTEIN: I think she has indicated
21		she doesn't have any information as to what
22		this meeting related to.
23
24	BY MR. RA	ANKING:
25	757.	Q. Okay. And are there any files at

1		your firm	that deal with a retainer of Broad &
2		Cassel?
3			A. I don't know.
4	758.		MR. RANKING: Because I would be
5			interested to know if there was, in fact, a
6			specific retainer between either your firm
7			on behalf of Mr. Allard, or either Mr.
8			Allard or one of his companies, and the
9			Broad & Cassel firm. And if there was, and
10			especially given regard to the fact that
11			this retainer relates specifically to
12			matters docketed to files that are the
13			subject matter of this action, I would like
14			the retainer to be produced. Will you
15			produce that, Mr. Epstein?
16			MR. EPSTEIN: We will look into whether
17			such a retainer exists. And if it does
18			exist and if it relates to the matters
19			relating to this file, we will produce it. $$\rm U/T$$
20	759.		MR. RANKING: Thank you. And likewise,
21			if there is a correspondence
22			THE DEPONENT: So is that under
23			advisement?
24	760.		MR. SILVER: No.

THE DEPONENT: Are you taking it under

1		advisement?
2		MR. EPSTEIN: Well, if it relates to the
3		mattersand that is what I am saying. I
4		specifically qualified it. If it relates
5		to the matters relating to this
6		lawsuitif it doesn't, then we wouldn't.
7		If it is unrelated, then we won't.
8	761.	MR. RANKING: Right. But, to be clear,
9		what I am talking aboutand Ms. Duncan
10		was very fair in the way she read the
11		transcript, we can't proscribe this by
12		saying relating to this lawsuit. We are
13		talking about the subject matter of the
14		activities undertaken by Mr. McKenzie that
15		have given us concern from the outset, and
16		which we have now, I think, irrefutably
17		established to have been a lawsuit
18		commenced by a shell corporation for which
19		Mr. Best was a nominee plaintiff.
20		So, when we talk about the subject
21		matter of the matters in issue, and as Ms.
22		Duncan has acknowledged in her affidavit,
23		we are talking about the wealth of
24		information that started in 2005 concerning
25		Peter Allard, concerning the Knoxs, and concerning the shareholder dispute 1 2 involving Kingsland Estates. So, to the extent that Broad & 3 Cassel has been consulted by Mr. McKenzie in furtherance of whatever it was he was 5 doing, taking instructions from Mr. Allard to commence lawsuits either in Ontario, or to commence lawsuits in Florida or elsewhere, all of that underlying factual 9 10 matrix is very relevant to the position 11 that we are putting forward, and for which 12 we are seeking costs against Mr. McKenzie 13 and his firm, regrettably, and also against 14 Peter Allard and the Knoxs. 15 MR. EPSTEIN: Mr. Ranking, I wasn't 16 attempting to be cute with my answer. I stand by the same qualification. We have 17 not seen that. We have not seen what the 18 nature of the retainer is, and we will 19 20 firstly want to look at exactly what the 21 retainer was, what it related to. But we 22 will produce it...we are not, you know, 23 trying to create a fine definition as I 24 think had existed in the past as to what 25 the underlying matters were in this

2 But if it relates to something that is unrelated in our view to this lawsuit, 3 then it is obviously not producible. But because of the fact that the witness just doesn't know, she has no information as to what this relates to, obviously we can't give a blanket undertaking to produce it until we have reviewed it and determined 9 that it is relevant. 10 11 762. MR. RANKING: And I know Mr. Silver has 12 a number of questions, but before I invite 13 him to make his comment, if I could just 14 finish my line of inquiry. I would also 15 like you to undertake to produce 16 correspondence and e-mails from the Broad & Cassel firm to Mr. McKenzie and/or to Mr. 17 Allard involving the subject matter of the 18 19 retainer if it relates to any of the issues 20 that have been canvassed in Ms. Duncan's 21 affidavit. 22 And I would also be interested to secure the results of their work and copies 23 of their invoices which relate to the work 24 25 that emanated from either this retainer or lawsuit.

1		a subsequent retainer by the Crawford
2		McKenzie firm for or on behalf of Peter
3		Allard, or any of his companies if the
4		retainer relates to the subject matter of
5		the litigation as I have defined it. If I
6		can just get the answer to the undertaking?
7		MR. EPSTEIN: With the same
8		qualification I gave before, if it relates
9		to this matter, then, yes, we will
10		undertake to provide that.	U/T
11	763.	MR. SILVER: Can we just clarify that?
12		When you say "relates to this matter", that
13		includes relates to the docket entries that
14		we are looking at?
15		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes. To the extentwhen
16		we have already identified that, and this
17		is why I want to be a little cautious. We
18		have already identified there were some
19		docket entries in here that related to
20		matters that Mr. Allard was involved with
21		that had nothing to do with this lawsuit.
22		That is why I don't want to say, "Well,
23		it's necessarily going to relate to
24		everything in the dockets." But, you know,
25		for example

1	764.	MR. SILVER: Let me make it easier for
2		you, Ian.
3		MR. EPSTEIN:the four files we have
4		identified
5	765.	MR. SILVER: Let me make it easier for
6		you because this is an area that I was
7		going to question on, and if we could do it
8		now. In Exhibit 9, one of the attachments
9		to Exhibit 9 is the irrevocable trust that
10		was created or is dated March 5th, 2007.
11		So what it appears is that, on January,
12		McKenzie goes down, meets with Dribin, and
13		it says he flies to Miami on January 30th.
14		He meets with Dribin, as Mr. Ranking
15		has pointed out, on January 31st, and then
16		three pages later, in the end of February,
17		he is provided with funds for a retainer of
18		that law firm for $12,500. And on March
19		5th, out comes a revocable trust. And so,
20		it would appear that Allard, through
21		McKenzie, paid the legal fees to Broad &
22		Cassel to create this revocable trust dated
23		March 5th, 2007 on behalf of Marjorie.
24		Now, whether you have the opinion
25		that that is related to this or not, it is our view that it is. It is in the docket 1 2 entries. And to the extent that you can produce documentation that relates to all 3 of that, I want to make sure that that is within your definition of what you agree to 5 produce. MR. EPSTEIN: I am going to give the same answer I gave before. I hear what you 8 9 are saying. But, you know, I want to see 10 exactly what the nature of the retainer 11 was, and we will provide you with a 12 response accordingly. 13 766. MR. RANKING: But, in any event, I think 14 Mr. Silver has fairly identified the issues 15 from our perspective, and clearly, if it 16 relates to the...and I will tell you that Justice Shaughnessy was very interested in 17 our submissions with respect to the Ilma 18 19 Knox irrevocable trust and what it did or 20 didn't do to a particular security 21 agreement that was included in the 22 Statement of Claim. So we say it is pretty relevant. If 23 24 you take a different view, that is fine. 25 But if you are inclined to take a different

1		view, we should take you out for lunch and
2		we might be able to explain our position in
3		a more fulsome manner.
4		MR. EPSTEIN: You also have the benefit
5		of background information and a series
6		of
7	767.	MR. RANKING: I know, but
8	768.	MR. SILVER: There is no doubt about
9		MR. EPSTEIN:you know, we have not
10		necessarily been privy to all of it. And
11		so that is why, before I give you an
12		undertaking, I want to make sure that we
13		are performing within the four corners of
14		what we are required to produce.
15

10		A. Yes. There are those payments on

12	772.	Q. And you will see that that was paid

14		Do you see that?

19		THE DEPONENT: And there is another

21	775.	MR. RANKING: There is.
22	776.	MR. SILVER: Thank you. But just while

8	BY MR. RANKING:
9	780.	Q. Now, I am looking here and I am
10	changing	courses for a moment. If I go down, and
11	just by	way of example, Ms. Duncan, there are
12	numerous	entries that refer to Nathan. But lawyer
13	number 4	at April 18, 2007, there is a big entry.
14	Then at	544687, lawyer 4, which is Mr. McKenzie:
15		"E-mail and case law from Kelly. Call
16		with Nathan, blogging"
17	Do you s	ee that?
18		A. Yes, I do.
19	781.	MR. SILVER: I don't. What date?
20	782.	MR. RANKING: April 18. It's the last
21		April 18th entry.
22		MR. EPSTEIN: I see it.
23	783.	MR. SILVER: Yes.
24

25 BY MR. RANKING:

1	784.	Q. Now, is it your evidence that you
2		think that "Nathan" refers to Donald Best?
3		A. That is what I was advised by Stacey
4		Ball.
5	785.	Q. And does he use that name when he is
6		performing private investigative services for Mr.
7		McKenzie?
8		A. That was the name attached to this
9		file. There werein our satellite files, for
10		example, we were dealing with people who had the
11		capability of hacking our system, hacking our
12		various communication modes. So it was customary on
13		those files to deal in aliases and nicknames to
14		avoid the particular target of an investigation
15		discovering what we were up to. So there are a
16		number of names that Mr. Best may have used as his
17		code name over the course of his association with
18		Mr. McKenzie. This is the name attached to this
19		file.
20	786.	Q. I thank you for that. But can I

                                 So, as I understand your evidence
                          Q.
                 then, this is Douglas Best, and a couple of entries

11 here...and I apologize, I thought it was Donald Best, but...so do I understand what you are saying, 12
13 is that Donald Best never would have used his name 14 in this file? It would have been Nathan, to the 15
                 best of what you have been told by Ms. Ball?
16
                                 Well, for the period of time that he
                          Α.
                 was acting under cover, if I can put it that way.

23
                 Mr. Best rendering accounts as an investigator for 24
                 NIS Inc., then, according to what Ms. Ball has told 25
                 you, he would have been known by his code name,

2			A.	No, that might be his brother. I

4	796.		Q.	Would you? And my colleague, Ms.

1		A. I don't know.
2	803.	Q. These are just various entries that
3	we found	d. All right.
4		MR. EPSTEIN: So you want us to ask Ms.
5		Ball if Douglas Best is his brother?
6	804.	MR. RANKING: Well, the reason this is
7		relevant, aside from the prurient interest
8		that I said we have in the Best family, is
9		that it does demonstrate the interstices of
10		Mr. Best and the Crawford McKenzie firm
11		insofar as Donald Best is concerned. It
12		would certainly seem that there is more
13		than one association with Donald Best and
14		his alias, Nathan, but it may well extend
15		to other members of his family. So I am
16		interested to know because these names come

18		MR. EPSTEIN: All right. So we will

8	BY MR. R	ANKING:
9	807.	Q. If I could ask you to turn to page
10		113.
11		A. 113?
12	808.	Q. Yes, please. Before I go there, I
13		forgot to ask one other question with respect to
14		Wanphen Panna. It talked about an Internet account.
15		"An account" can have two meanings. An account can
16		either be a paper invoice that is rendered to
17		Crawford McKenzie, or an Internet account can
18		actually be an account, an electronic website that
19		you can access over the Internet.
20		Do you have any knowledge, information or
21		belief as to when Wanphen Panna was conducting her
22		work, when she was referring to "account", was she
23		referring to an Internet account? Do you know?
24		A. I don't know.

Q. Would you make inquiries of Ms. Ball

25 809.

1		and Ms. Ware to determine whether they might know?
2		And if it is only one of the two, we will know.
3		That is fine.
4		A. Ms. Ware was the assistant who
5		handled all the accounting, whereas Ms. Ball had no
6		connection with that.
7	810.	Q. Perhaps Ms. Ware then. And I can
8		tell you that thatI examined you on the entry
9		that I am referring to. If you want me to take you
10		back to that, I will do that after.
11		MR. EPSTEIN: So you want us to ask
12		Ware
13	811.	MR. RANKING: Whether the docket entry
14		was referring to
15		MR. EPSTEIN: Just identify the
16		document, please, just so that I know for
17		the record, please.	U/T
18	812.	MR. RANKING: The entry I was referring
19		to is at page 28, the 2nd of June, 2006.
20		It indicates:
21		"Money wired to cover Internet research
22		account"
23
24	BY MR. R	ANKING:

25 813. Q. And what is not clear from that docket is whether that is to pay an account that was 1 2 rendered by Wanphen Panna, or whether that was paid to maintain an electronic account for which she was 3 doing research. I just don't know. A. As I said, I don't know. All I have 5 is a series of accounts in the file. I don't know 6 if that is what it refers to. 7 Q. All right. And I know you have 814. 8 undertaken to do that, so that is great. Thank you. 9 10 I had asked you to go to page 113. And you will see 11 at the entry, I think it is January 15th. Beside 12 entry number 611452, it appears that Peterco, which 13 I take to be Peterco Holdings, had provided the firm with a $5,000 U.S. retainer for Miami counsel in 14 connection with a Florida action. Do you see that? 15 MR. EPSTEIN: Yes. 16 17 BY MR. RANKING: 18 815. That again seems to be a Broad & 19 Q. Cassel firm. And do I understand from these entries 20 that in January of '09, Crawford McKenzie was 21 22 continuing to receive funds, and to retain the Broad & Cassel firm on behalf of Mr. Allard and his 23 company, Peterco? 24

Δ

I don't know.

1	816.	Q. Would you agree with my summary or
2	understa	nding of what I take from the document
3	would th	at be the same as yours?
4		MR. EPSTEIN: I mean, it refers to Miami
5		counsel, in fairness. I mean, your
6		assumption sounds reasonable, but it makes
7		reference to Miami counsel.
8	817.	MR. RANKING: Well, because what you see
9		is this, you see a $5,000 retainer less a
10		$10 wire transfer fee. You then see a
11		$45,000 retainer plus a $10 transfer fee,
12		and then you see $50,000 being sent to
13		Broad & Cassel.
14		MR. EPSTEIN: I agree. I am not
15		disagreeing with you. That seems like a
16		reasonable assumption to make, but
17	818.	MR. RANKING: Well, perhaps we can do it
18		this way. If you have any evidence to the
19		contrary, then let me know.
20		MR. EPSTEIN: Okay.	U/T

1		made reference, in January and February of '07, or
2		the retainer in January of '09?
3		A. I don't know.
4	820.	Q. Will you make inquiries of Ms. Ware
5		to determine if she has any knowledge, information
6		or belief?
7		MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.	U/T
3	821.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
9
10	BY MR. R	ANKING:
11	822.	Q. At the break, I gave your counsel a
12		copy of a summary entitled "Funds Deposited into
13		Trust Accounts for Files BMC 543, 568 and 586". And
14		we corrected a typo on page 5, which referred to
15		BMC 568, and the last of those files has now been
16		corrected to 586. And what this summary provides is
17		it is a summary of the client ledgers that you
18		provided and had the receipts of funds.
19		And we went through those ledgers, Ms.
20		Duncan, and summarized on this summary the various
21		amounts received by the Crawford McKenzie firm in
22		respect of those three files, BMC 543, 568 and 586.
23		Could I ask you to let me know, does this summary
24		fairly represent your understanding of the amounts received as extracted from the client ledgers?

1			A. I would have to take a close look at
2		it.
3	823.		Q. All right. Would you do that?
4			MR. EPSTEIN: Yes.	I/L
5			THE DEPONENT: Yes.
6
7	BY MR. R	ANKING:
8	824.		Q. And if I can take you to the last
9		page, the	e summary from all three files as reflected
10		on the c	lient ledgers is 3,451,840.34. That is the
11		amount t	hat we say flows into the trust account.
12			MR. EPSTEIN: On all three files?
13	825.		MR. RANKING: On all three files. And
14			we have given you a breakdown on the fees
15			billed on each file. And then we have set
16			forth beneath that the information that
17			came from your client ledgers, which is
18			indented, the fees billed on each file.
19			And there would appear to be a discrepancy
20			between the two numbers of almost $1
21			million.
22			And based on the information that we
23			have got, we can't determine the
24			discrepancy. So if you could assist by
25			speaking with your accounting people, that

1		would be of assistance.
2		MR. EPSTEIN: It does appear that there
3		were some internal transfers, although,
4		admittedly, those internal transfers don't
5		explain the entire discrepancy. It would
6		probably account for $100,000.
7	826.	MR. RANKING: And you are absolutely
8		correct. Our summary does not back out the
9		transfers. And so, to that extent, we
10		acknowledge that this is inaccurate because
11		all we have done is taken it off the
12		"Receipts" column. So if you have got
13		money transferred, then there is an element
14		of double counting, and I think we have
15		explained that to you off the record. So
16		we have to take that into account.
17		But given that acknowledged error,
18		we still can't come to a landing. So, why
19		don't we mark this as the next exhibit? It
20		will be Exhibit number 10.

1	832.	Q. And when you say, "when you compare

3		would be the extent of Mr. McKenzie's billings on an
4		annual basis?
5		MR. EPSTEIN: Don't answer that
6		question.	/R
7	833.	MR. RANKING: Well, the reason it's
8		relevantwell, I don't need to tell you
9		why it is relevant. What I am going to ask
10		you for isare you going to produce the
11		financial statements of the Crawford
12		McKenzie firm for the years 2005 to 2009?
13		Because what I say is relevantand Mr.
14		McKenzie has made clear that he doesn't
15		have an interest in this lawsuit, but he
16		clearly has a very significant interest in
17		the billings that were generated from it.
18		And we are interested to know, both
19		from Mr. McKenzie's perspective, and to the
20		extent that the firm profited through these
21		bills, the extent to which this was a
22		significant file for the Crawford McKenzie
23		firm.
24		MR. EPSTEIN: Well, I don't think she is
25		disputing the fact that this was a

1		significant file for the Crawford McKenzie
2		firm. Your earlier question was, was this
3		an extraordinary large file for Mr.
4		McKenzie? And I think she indicated that
5		it wasn't an extraordinarily large file for
6		Mr. McKenzie. He had others that were
7		bigger. I don't think there is any dispute
8		that this was a significant file for the
9		firm. If that is what you are looking at,
10		I don't
11		THE DEPONENT: If you are trying to
12		MR. EPSTEIN:think we have any
13		difficulty acknowledging that.
14		THE DEPONENT: No. And if you are
15		trying to get at the question of whether
16		this was a significant file for these
17		particular years
18	834.	MR. RANKING: Because that is where I am
19		going.
20		THE DEPONENT: Okay. The answer is yes.
21		Mr. McKenzie's telecommunications practice
22		had slowed down considerably. This was his
23		mainthese two files were his main source
24		of revenue for those years.
25	835.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.

1	836.	MR. SILVER: Well, they were the firm's
2		main source of revenue for the two years.
3		THE DEPONENT: Revenue, yes.
4
5	BY MR. RANKING:
6	837.	Q. And perhaps we can get over the
7	issue of	producing the financial statements. When
8	you tal	about the main source of revenue on a
9	percenta	age basis, how significant were they? When I
10	say "wer	ce they", I am talking about the four files
11	that hav	ve been identified as the Nelson Barbados,
12	Peter Al	llard files.
13		MR. EPSTEIN: What are you asking? Are
14		you asking what percentage of the billings
15		these files represented?
16	838.	MR. RANKING: Correct.
17		MR. EPSTEIN: I am going to take the
18		question under advisement.
19	839.	MR. SILVER: Sorry, Gerry, because I was
20		going to cover this, too. So, what I think
21		I would like is broken down by year, and
22		because '05 was a short year, I think it
23		would be sufficient for us if we knew what
24		percentage of the billings to these files
25		was to gross billings of the firm for each

1		of 2006, 2007, and 2008. And then 2009, it
2		changed because he started paying some
3		towards expenses.
4		So let's limit it to '06, '07 and
5		'08, the percentage of gross billings on
6		this file to the gross billings of the
7		firm.
8		MR. EPSTEIN: I understand what the
9		question is. Can you just explain to me
10		again the relevance of this, of this
11		particular matter? What is the relevance
12		of this?
13	840.	MR. SILVER: Well, I mean, at least one
14		relevance is the significance of the file
15		to the firm in respect of our claim against
16		the firm.
17		MR. EPSTEIN: Fine. I think she has
18		already given you evidence that this was a
19		significant file for the firm.
20	841.	MR. SILVER: Well, was it 50 percent?
21		THE DEPONENT: Well, I think, as II
22		testified earlier that Mr. McKenzie's
23		billings for himself were more thanat
24		least double the other partners combined.
25	842.	MR. SILVER: So, without getting into

1		anymore detail, can we say that it was at
2		least 50 percent of the firm's billings for
3		2006, 2007 and 2008?
4		THE DEPONENT: Yes.
5	843.	MR. SILVER: I think that is good
6		enough.
7	844.	MR. RANKING: I think that is good
8		enough.
9		MR. EPSTEIN: I think that is the
10		information you
11	845.	MR. RANKING: That is fine. That is the
12		information we are looking for.
13	846.	MR. SILVER: So it was at least 50
14		percent of firm's billings for each of
15		those years.
16
17	BY MR. RANKING:
18	847.	Q. Based on your review of the
19	materia	ls and your work on the file, did you
20	understa	and the individual to whom Mr. McKenzie was
21	reporti	ng with respect to these files?
22		A. It was really difficult to say.
23	Certain	ly he mentioned Mr. Allard a number of times.
24	That was	s morethat came into it more after these
25	dispute:	s arose.

1	848.	Q. Which disputes are you referring to?
2		A. The partnership disputes arose. So
3		it was only, I think, in the year 2009 that we
4		really began to hear about Mr. Allard, that he was
5		unhappy with accounts, or something of that nature.
6		So it was only in 2009 we really began to hear
7		anything significant about Mr. Allard.
8	849.	Q. But I take it the reason for that
9		was, until 2009, Mr. Allard was generally satisfied
10		with the work that was being done?
11		A. As I said, I really don't have any
12		direct knowledge of Mr. Allard's level of
13		satisfaction. I only have Mr. McKenzie giving
14		statements to us about cash flow issues. So I don't
15		know the truth or the untruth of those statements.
16	850.	Q. But I think it is fair to say that
17		Mr. McKenzie began reporting to you when things were
18		not going as well with Mr. Allard as they had once
19		gone; is that fair?
20		A. No, I can't tie it to anything
21		involving Mr. Allard because it only ties in with
22		the disputes that were going on between the
23		partners.
24	851.	Q. Right. But the communications that
25		you received from Mr. McKenzie relative to Mr.

1		Allard in 2009	were expressing concern with respect
2		to fees?
3		Α.	Yes, at times that we were asking
4		Mr. McKenzie fo	r money. I don't want to giveI
5		want to put tho	se in context because I think that is
6		very relevant.	And the other information we had
7		about Mr. Allar	d related to other issues that Mr.
8		McKenzie was de	aling with.
9	852.	Q.	But I take it you understood the
10		client to be Mr	. Allard?
11		Α.	I knew he was involved.
12	853.	Q.	And I take it that, to the extent
13		that he was inv	olved, you understood that he was the
14		individual that	was providing Mr. McKenzie with
15		instructions?
16		Α.	In relation to this matter, that
17		wasn't somethin	g that was clear. We heard more
18		about other iss	ues he was dealing with.
19	854.	Q.	And was it not clear simply because
20		you didn't inqu	ire?
21		Α.	Partly, yes.
22	855.	Q.	And I take it you weren't aware of
23		Mr. Best provid	ing instructions?
24		Α.	Not really, untilagain, as I
25		said, when I wa	s asked to deal with security issues,

25

1		Mr. Best came to some meetings, and, at that point,
2		he was introduced as the client. And that was when
3		I became aware that Mr. Best was supposedly the
4		directing mind of the plaintiff in this action.
5	856.	Q. And aside from his involvement of
6		the security issues, were you ever aware of his
7		involvement otherwise?
8		A. I was awarehe would come to the
9		firmhe would come to the office occasionally, but
10		I only became aware of it after the security issues
11		arose. So it was only when I became aware that it
12		was in relation to this file.
13	857.	Q. What was he doing when he came to
14		the firm?
15		A. That, I don't know. He and Mr.
16		McKenzie and Ms. Ware were closeted in their end of
17		the office, and I don't know what they were doing.
18	858.	Q. And to the best of your knowledge,
19		was that dealing with security issues?
20		A. In 2007 and early 2008, yes. That
21		is the extent of my knowledge.
22	859.	Q. I am going to leave your work on the
23		file and the various insurance issues to others,
24		just because I said I would afford you the
25		opportunity, and because I like to be true to my

1	word. V	We have had delivered an affidavit from Mr.
2	McKenzie	e, and I do want to give you the opportunity
3	to refle	ect on that. I do have a number of exhibits
4	to mark.	But just before I do that, to reflect on
5	the affi	davit and to let me know if you have any
6	particul	ar comments with respect to the affidavit
7	that you	would like to put on the record.
8		MR. EPSTEIN: That is a big question,
9		and it is a fair question. What I would
10		like to do is have herbecause obviously
11		it is a lengthy affidavit. I would like
12		the witness to reflect on that and come
13		back at the next examination.
14	860.	MR. RANKING: That is entirely fair. I
15		have no problem with that at all. Let me
16		just look at my list of exhibits, which I
17		undoubtedly jettisoned.
18
19	BY MR. RANKING:
20	861.	Q. I do have one other document for
21	sure I v	would like to tenderI've got two,
22	actually	y. One document is the land parcel register
23	for 40 (Coldwater Street. I hand that across to you.
24	Mr. McKe	enzie indicates that he sold his partnership
25	interest	to you in July of 2008. And if I can take

1		you to the last two entries, you will see that there
2		was a transfer of his interest to you and to Tim
3		Anderson on July 21, 2008?
4		A. Yes.
5	862.	Q. And as I understand that, he sold
6		his interest to you for $246,733?
7		A. That is what is shown on the
8		document.
9	863.	Q. I see.
10		A. Idocuments were placed in front
11		of me on that date, and I was told to sign them,
12		and
13	864.	Q. Did you pay him $246,733?
14		A. No.
15	865.	Q. And did you take back a mortgage, or
16		did you take out a mortgage for $180,000?
17		A. We did sign a mortgage, yes.
18	866.	Q. Did you see any funds?
19		A. No, no, that mortgage went to
20		Mrthat was in favour of Mr. McKenzie to fund the
21		transfer. He had beenhe is owed payments under
22		that, and as far as I know, they werethose
23		payments started the next month.
24	867.	Q. And did he receive the difference in
٥٢		100

cash or in some other form of assets between the 180

1		and the 246?
2		A. That, I don't know. Mr. McLean
3		handled all the real estate details for that.
4	868.	Q. All right. Will you make inquiries
5		of Mr. McLean and advise?
6		MR. EPSTEIN: I will take that under
7		advisement.	U/A
8	869.	MR. RANKING: Okay. If we can mark the
9		parcel register as the next exhibit. That
10		will be Exhibit number 11.
11
12		EXHIBIT NO. 11: Land parcel register for 40
13		Coldwater Street
14
15	870.	MR. RANKING: And one thing which I had
16		intended to mark, which I have not yet
17		marked, was the copy of the initial letter
18		from Mr. Dewart, answering undertakings.
19		If we could mark that as the Exhibit number
20		12. I will provide an additional copy to
21		you, not that you need it. I know that
22		you've already got it.
23		That is a letter dated February
24		19th, with various attachments being
25		answers to undertakings on the

1		cross-examination of Mr. McKenzie held
2		February 3rd and February 8th. That will
3		be Exhibit number 12.
4
5	EXHIBIT NO.	12 : Letter from Mr. Dewart to
6		Mr. Ranking, dated February 19,
7		2010, with various attachments
8
9	871.	MR. RANKING: And the chart that was
10		prepared with your assistance by Mr.
11		Epstein's firm, which I will call the
12		revised undertakings chart, will be marked
13		as Exhibit number 13. And that can easily
14		be differentiated because it has a middle
15		column, "Answers Given in February 2010",
16		and the right-hand column provides
17		"Clarification/Additional Information".
18		And I take it that is the updated
19		undertakings that you were good enough to
20		provide, Ms. Duncan?
21		THE DEPONENT: Yes.
22	872.	MR. RANKING: Thank you.
23
24	EXHIBIT NO.	13 : Revised undertakings chart from
25		Mr. Dewart to Mr. Ranking, dated

1		February 19, 2010
2
3	873.	MR. SILVER: Can I just ask a question?
4		In respect of Exhibit 12, Ms. Duncan, did
5		you review the answers to undertakings that
6		Mr. Dewart had sent over under cover of his
7		letter dated February 19th?
8		THE DEPONENT: Not until February 23rd,
9		24th.
10	874.	MR. SILVER: So you didn't review it
11		before it was sent to us?
12		THE DEPONENT: No.
13	875.	MR. RANKING: I know that my colleagues
14		have other questions, but I've dragged the
15		puck long enough, so
16	876.	MR. SILVER: Well, if I couldI think
17		we should have a discussion off the record.
18		But before we do, I think that Mr.
19		Ranking's examination really isn't
20		finished, in that there are some loose ends
21		that, for example, you are going to reflect
22		on Mr. McKenzie's April 23rd affidavit, and
23		come back and tell us.
24		So I think that we should discuss
25		off the record when the reattendance is going to take place. And then, at that 1 2 time, Mr. Ranking will complete his examination, if nothing more but to follow 3 up on these loose ends. Then I am going to 4 5 go, and David Bristow will go after me, and finally, Maanit Zemel will follow up. And 6 I think we will need about a day for that, 7 8 like, four hours. I mean, my two hours may now be cut back because Gerry has covered 9 some of the ground. 10 11 So, why don't we go off the record and decide on a day when we can come back, 12 13 and then we will just adjourn to that day? 14 MR. EPSTEIN: Fine.
