This is Exhibit A referred to in the affidavit of K. William McKenzie sworn before me, this 23
day of April, 2010.

A COMMISSIONER FOR TAKING AFFIDAVITS

Bill – As discussed, and as you said you understood when we spoke, this was a cross-examination and not an examination for discovery. There is no mechanism for “correcting” evidence given on a cross-examination. Stacey asked my assistant for a copy of the bound brief that was referred to in the cross-examination. This is merely a copy of the accounts which Stacey sent us in paper form, and which we have already scanned in and sent back to her. All references are to the dates on the accounts themselves, which you already have in paper and electronic form.

Thanks Stacey also I notice in reviewing the transcript that I have not seen the compendium so cannot doublecheck that the documents in there are all accurate. When I get this stuff I will be able to complete the review and also see if anything jogs my memory and I can add to the corrections and clarifications.

Please also fax the attached to Sean and me.

Regards, Bill

Hi Tina,

Could you please send me copies of the exhibits from Mr. McKenzie's cross-examinations on Feb 3rd and 8th, 2010 as well as the bound volume of tabbed accounts which Mr. Dewart put in front of other counsel during the examinations? Mr. McKenzie is reviewing the transcripts and needs to see these documents while doing so.

Thanks, Stacey
