

execution in respect of the said judgment debt of $168,847.08 and taxed costs in the sum of $1608.25.

The writ of fieri facias was signed the 24th April, 2007 by the Registrar of the Supreme Court.

A Praecipe was filed by Philip Vernon Nicholls trading as Cottle Catford & Co. On the 3rd May, 2007 . A writ of execution was issued on the 3rd day of May, 2007 and the affidavit verifying the debt was sworn by the said Philip Vernon Nicholls on the 7th May, 2007. (I attach hereto a copy of the said affidavit as Exhibit DW 6).

10) On the 4th day of May, 2007, (the date to which the judgment summons herein was adjourned, all the parties namely Mr. Philip Vernon Nicholls and his attorney-at-law Mr. George Bennett, myself , my husband, attorney-at-law Allan Watson and my attorney-at-law Vernon O. Smith appeared before the Court for the adjourned hearing of the judgment when my attorney-at-law notified the Honourable Court that the judgment debt had been paid by the defendant judgment/debtor and produced the receipts marked Exhibits "DW 3 and DW 4" for the inspection of the Court.

11) I further state that at no time I have been a client of Cottle Catford & Co. of which Philip Vernon Nicholls is the sole partner nor have I had any dealings with the said Cottle Catford in any personal capacity or otherwise.

12) In spite of the fact that the judgment debt owed to Cottle Catford & Co. the firm comprising as partners Allan St.Clair Watson, Joyce Griffith and the said Philip Vernon Nicholls had been fully paid and liquidated by me, the plaintiff by his attorney-at-law, Mr. George Bennett had the goods and chattels belonging to me levied upon by the chief Marshal by virtue of the said writ of execution as is evidenced by the notices of the sale of chattels attached from Delvina Watson which was served on me on the 22nd day of June, 2007 by the Chief Marshal copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits "DW 7 - A & B".

13) In the premises, the execution is irregular and unlawful.

I MAKE this affidavit in support of my application by way of summons filed herein on the 28th day of June, 2007 for the orders therein sought.
