THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

At all times relevant to this Superseding Indictment, unless otherwise stated:

I. The Defendants and Relevant Individuals and Entities

1. The defendant DONVILLE INNISS, a United States lawful permanent resident who resided in Tampa, Florida, and Barbados, was a member of the Parliament of Barbados and the Minister of Industry, International Business, Commerce, and Small Business Development of Barbados (collectively, “Minister of Industry”). INNISS was a public official in Barbados and a “foreign official” as that term is used in the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (“FCPA”), Title 15, United States Code, Section 78dd-2(h)(2)(A).

2. Insurance Corporation of Barbados Ltd. (“ICBL”) was an insurance company headquartered in Barbados that offered various financial products, including individual life, health and casualty insurance.

3. The defendant INGRID INNES was a citizen of Canada and a resident of Barbados. INNES was the Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) of ICBL.

4. The defendant ALEX TASKER was a citizen and resident of Barbados. TASKER was a senior vice president of ICBL.

5. ICBL Executive 1, an individual whose identity is known to the Grand Jury, was a citizen and resident of Barbados. ICBL Executive 1 was the Chief Financial Officer of ICBL.

6. The "Bermuda Company," a corporation the identity of which is known to the Grand Jury, was an insurance company headquartered in Bermuda that offered various financial products, including life, property and casualty insurance. The Bermuda Company was the majority shareholder of ICBL.

7. The "New York Dental Company," a corporation the identity of which is known to the Grand Jury, was a dental company that was incorporated in New York in 1992 and had an address in Elmont, New York. The New York Dental Company was thus a "domestic concern" as that term is used in the FCPA, Title 15, United States Code, Section 78dd-2(h)(1)(B).

8. Co-Conspirator 1 ("CC-1"), an individual whose identity is known to the Grand Jury, was a United States citizen and a resident of Tampa, Florida. CC-1 was thus a "domestic concern" as that term is used in the FCPA, Title 15, United States Code, Section 78dd-2(h)(1)(A). CC-1 was the CEO of the New York Dental Company and owned and controlled the company.

9. The Barbados Investment and Development Corporation ("BIDC") was an agency of the government of Barbados. The defendant DONVILLE INNIS, as the Minister of Industry, exercised authority over the BIDC.

II. The Fraudulent Schemes

10. From in or about and between August 2015 and April 2016, the defendant DONVILLE INNIS leveraged his position as the Minister of Industry and engaged in a scheme to accept approximately $36,000 in bribes from ICBL, in violation of Barbadian law, and to launder that money to and through the United States. ICBL employees, including the defendants INGRID INNES and ALEX TASKER, agreed to pay bribes to INNIS, who, in return, agreed to use his official position as the Minister of Industry to cause the BIDC to renew insurance contracts with ICBL.

11. In furtherance of the scheme, the defendant INGRID INNES, the defendant ALEX TASKER and ICBL Executive 1 caused ICBL's majority shareholder, the Bermuda Company, to make bribe payments to the defendant DONVILLE INNIS through a United States bank account in the name of the New York Dental Company, which had no actual business with ICBL. ICBL employees, including INNES, TASKER and ICBL Executive 1, did not disclose to the Bermuda Company that the payments were for the benefit of a Barbadian government official and instead falsely claimed that the payments were for "[c]onsulting services."

12. In or about July 2015, the defendant DONVILLE INNIS, using his official position as Minister of Industry, caused the BIDC to renew an insurance contract with ICBL (the "2015 Contract"). By its terms, the 2015 Contract required the BIDC to pay a premium of approximately 661,469.30 Barbadian Dollars, which was the equivalent of approximately $330,734.65, to ICBL.

13. In return, ICBL employees, including the defendants INGRID INNES and ALEX TASKER, agreed to pay a bribe of approximately $16,536.73 to the defendant

DONVILLE INNIS, in consideration for having caused the BIDC to renew the 2015 Contract. The bribe payment of approximately $16,536.73 was five percent of the premium that the BIDC owed to ICBL under the 2015 Contract.

14. To conceal the bribe payments, the defendant DONVILLE INNIS arranged to launder the bribes through a bank account at "Bank 1," a bank the identity of which is known to the Grand Jury, with an address in Elmont, New York, in the name of the New York Dental Company (the "New York Dental Company Bank Account"). The payment was routed through a branch of Bank 1 located in Brooklyn, New York. CC-1 was the authorized representative of the New York Dental Company Bank Account.

15. On or about August 17, 2015, the Bermuda Company transferred approximately $16,536.73 to the New York Dental Company Bank Account based on a false invoice provided by the defendant INGRID INNES, the defendant ALEX TASKER and ICBL Executive 1 for purported consulting services. On or about August 19, 2015, the New York Dental Company transferred approximately $16,000 to a Bank 1 account in the United States in the name of the defendant DONVILLE INNIS (the "INNIS Bank Account") via a check transaction. The New York Dental Company check for approximately $16,000 was made payable to INNIS.

16. In or about March 2016, the defendant DONVILLE INNIS, using his position as Minister of Industry, caused the BIDC to renew another insurance contract with ICBL (the "2016 Contract").

17. In return, ICBL employees, including the defendants INGRID INNES and ALEX TASKER, agreed to pay an additional bribe of approximately $20,000 to the defendant DONVILLE INNIS, in consideration for having caused the BIDC to renew the 2016 Contract.

18. On or about April 18, 2016, the Bermuda Company transferred approximately $20,000 to the New York Dental Company Bank Account based on a false invoice provided by the defendant INGRID INNES, the defendant ALEX TASKER and ICBL Executive 1 for purported consulting services. On or about April 25, 2016, the New York Dental Company made transfers of approximately $9,000 and $8,000 to the INNISS Bank Account via check transactions. The New York Dental Company checks for approximately $9,000 and $8,000 were made payable to the defendant DONVILLE INNISS. On or about April 27, 2016, the New York Dental Company transferred approximately $2,750 to the INNISS Bank Account via a check transaction. The New York Dental Company check for $2,750 was made payable to INNISS.

III. Barbados Prevention of Corruption Act

19. The Prevention of Corruption Act of Barbados (the “Barbados Prevention of Corruption Act”) provided in Section 3(1) that “[a]ny person who, by himself or by in conjunction with any person, corruptly solicits or receives or agrees to receive, for himself or for any other person, any gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage whatsoever as an inducement to, or reward for or otherwise on account of any member, officer or servant of the Crown or of a public body doing or forbearing to do anything in respect of any matter or transaction whatsoever, actual or proposed, in which the Crown or such public body is concerned, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.”

20. The Barbados Prevention of Corruption Act provided in Section 6 that “[a] person convicted on indictment of a misdemeanour under this Act, where the matter or transaction in relation to which the offence was committed was a contract, or a proposal for a contract, with the Crown or any Government Department or any public body, or a sub-contract to execute any work comprised in such a contract, shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding seven nor less than three years.”

21. The Barbados Prevention of Corruption Act provided in Section 7 that “[w]here, in any proceedings against a person for an offence under this Act, it is proved that any money, gift or other consideration has been paid or given to or received by a person in the employment of the Crown or any Government Department or a public body by or from a person or agent of a person holding or seeking to obtain a contract from the Crown or any Government Department or public body, the money, gift or consideration shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been paid or given and received corruptly as inducement or reward, unless the contrary is proved.”
